A sold out crowd for the 5th Annual Wine About What Ales. You mingled amongst the Arsenal's two rooms sampling a wide variety of locally brewed wines and craft brews. Tasty Hors d'oeuvres prepared by Penn's Bistro and artfully served too! DJ Lew provided the appropriate cocktail music until later in the evening when the bar opened and the dancing began. The event was sponsored by the recently rebranded New Castle Community Partnership.

National Park Service announces New Superintendent has been selected as the new superintendent of First State National Historical Park in Delaware.

Ethan McKinley

McKinley comes to the position from Northeast Regional Office in Philadelphia, where he worked for the last six years, most recently as the chief of commercial services. He replaces former Superintendent Russell Smith, who recently retired after 42 years with the National Park Service.

"Ethan brings a fresh perspective and energy to the park. His expertise in partnerships and business management will allow for us to look at new ways to engage the community in visitor opportunities," said Northeast Regional Director Mike Caldwell.

Rum Runners, and Bath Tub Gin.

Presentation by historian and Wilmington University professor, Michael Dixon, on Delaware's struggle to live with the prohibition law for nearly 14 years. Hear colorful stories of rum runners, bootleggers, moonshine, bathtub gin, organized crime, outgunned
lawmen, complicated politics and the men behind it.

Join us for this exciting, dangerous, and sometimes humorous look at Delaware during Prohibition.

To the Editor,
Ray Bradbury once said, "Without libraries, what have we? We have no past and no future." Indeed our own beloved library is a critical asset, serving as both a repository of the richness of New Castle's heritage, as well as a driver of forward, hopeful progress.

Since 2003, the New Castle Library Friends has consisted of a small group of dedicated and enthusiastic members whose mission is to support the library by devoting attention to necessary library services and allocating resources for the development of programs that sustain and strengthen the local community.

January is Library Friends month and we hope you will join us in our mission. Please consider becoming a member of the Friends today and help support our library and our community. Membership dues continue to be our major source of funds. A basic membership is just $10/ year ($15 for a family) and is open to anyone. Funds generated from membership and fundraising events help pay for valuable services such as sponsoring the Walk-in Collection, that provides additional titles for patrons, children's programming including support of the Summer Reading Club, and equipment that produces popular library publications such as the quarterly newsletter, Book Lover's Connection. To become a Friends member, simply stop by the library or visit newcastlelibraryfriends.org to access the application and learn more

The Board of the Library Friends has been hard at work planning events and fundraisers for 2015. Our Annual Meeting will take place on Thursday, January 15, at 6:30 p.m. in the library's Community Room. The short meeting will be immediately followed by a "Bites & Bytes" program, featuring hot soups and breads, and led by Library Director Julie Kirk, who will cover the various technologies offered by the library, from apps to ebooks to databases. The event is free and open to the public, so please join us if you are interested in learning more about our fabulous library.

In addition, mark your calendars for our first fundraiser of 2015, "Chocolate Friend-zy," on Friday, February 13 from 6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. at the library. Sample a variety of sweet and savory chocolate dishes, nosh on delicious hors d'oeuvres, and enjoy the sounds of the Rob Zinn jazz quartet. This is a great opportunity to connect with Library Friends and neighbors. Tickets are $20 for members and $25 for non-members and will be sold at the door at the event.

Also continuing in 2015 is the sale of Carlo Viola's photography, with works on display at the offices of Lisa M. Whitaker, CPA, 318 Delaware Street. Proceeds from the sale of these pieces benefit the library.

If you have any questions, or are interested in volunteering with the Friends, drop us a note atnclibraryfriends@gmail.com - we'd love to hear from you.

On behalf of the Library Friends Board, we want to wish you and your families the very best for a happy, healthy year ahead and we hope to see your name on the Friends' roster and meet you at Friends' events in 2015.

Warm Regards,

Kelly Koczak McCurdy,
New Castle Library Friends Co-President

JULIA CHILD

CobbleCastIronCookery

I came across this yummy in Sherry Brown's Cast Iron Cooking and have to pass it along.

Brush bottom and sides of a baking dish or cast iron skillet with olive oil.

Slice potatoes crosswise into desired thickness. If you're using a mandolin, please watch the fingers

Arrange potato slices vertically and loosely in prepared dish or skillet.

Sprinkle garlic and Italian seasoning on top of potatoes. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Dot potatoes with butter.

Cover skillet or dish with foil and bake in a 375° oven for about 1 hour or until potatoes are tender. Remove foil, sprinkle with Parmesan cheese and bake for another 15 to 20 minutes or until crisp.

you'll thank me!

tender nob

The flavors in the Tender Nob are intense yet come together for a smooth sip. If you're the enthusiast with a lot of bottles in your liquor cabinet, dust some off and give this drink a try.

- 1 oz Hennessy Cognac
- 1 oz Wild Turkey Rye Whiskey
- .5 oz Liqueur Strega
- .25 oz Luxardo Amaro Abano (bitters)
- .25 oz Walnut orgeat syrup

Garnish: Orange and lemon twists
Add all the ingredients to a mixing glass and fill with ice. Stir, and strain into a rocks glass containing one large ice cube. Garnish with an orange twist and a lemon twist.

Construction

Giovanni DiMondi, founder of Delaware Block Company, was working for Earnest Disabatino and Sons in the early 1930's. He acquired a hand block machine and began making blocks in his backyard after work and selling them. He persuaded Mr. Disabatino to buy from him and in turn Mr. Disabatino allowed him to quit his job and to make blocks full time. Mr. Disabatino became his first big customer and induced fellow contractors to buy from Delaware Block Company. As business expanded Giovanni purchased the property on 7 th Street parallel to the railroad tracks and moved his operation there. When World War II started the government bought blocks to build army barracks and housing projects for defense workers. From a humble beginning, Delaware Block became the largest supplier of blocks in the Delaware Valley. Wyoming Block and other small companies were owned by Delaware Block. The children Joseph, Pasquale and Francis eventually took over the business.

The founder of Aldo Gibellino and Son was Aldo Gibellino who was a carpenter with the Giuseppe Bellanca Aircraft Corporation. When Bellanca sold his interest, Gibellino formed a partnership with Guido DeAscanis to build homes on South Street in New Castle. After that project, Gibellino went into business for himself and built Penn Acres development. This was a long lasting project that eventually was taken over by his son Ronald.

Guido DeAscanis & Sons was founded by Guido DeAscanis who was a stonemason and bricklayer. He began by repairing sidewalks and rehabilitating old homes in the West End. After the war he formed a partnership with Aldo Gibellino to build homes on South Street. After that project Guido entered the custom home building field in which he excelled. The firm built Van Dyke Village and Washington Square in New Castle, as well as a number of projects in New Castle County. The firm was later operated by his children, Francis, Emmett, Guido Jr., and Joseph.

Joseph and Daniel Aceto began rehabilitating homes in New Castle about 1965. Through their efforts many homes were spared the wrecking ball.

Shoemaker"

Domenico DiSabatino opened his shop in 1928. Domenico was a skilled tradesman. He could make a complete pair of shoes. The business was later taken over by his son, Francis.

Texting codes every parent should know

It may be funny in some circles, but certain texting codes used by teens may be a cause for concern. Below are some of the latest codes to be aware of should you notice a message on your child's mobile screen.

Deciphering your kids secret online shorthand language is getting easier with revelations from sites like netlingo that keep a running list of the latest cracked code being used to converse online and in text messages.

- Know which codes can bring an immediate threat into your home, to your kids and family. (Example: ASL = Age Sex Location)
- Remind your kids to never share location, personal details. Think before you post.
- Some of these acronym meanings are very direct and a little shocking.

Your kid has something to hide
