HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Welcomes (Back) New Director

The New Castle Historical Society welcomes a new executive director after Dan Citron accepted a position with the State of Delaware.

Michael Connolly joined the Society as executive director in December after serving as interim director since August. Mike previously served as executive director of the Society from 2007 to 2015. "I'm very excited to be working with the New Castle Historical Society again," Mike said. "I love New Castle, its history and the community. It's my home and I'm very passionate about sharing New Castle's heritage with others." Mike has a strong background in business and museum management, and a master's degree is historic preservation. In addition to NCHS, he's worked with museums and historic sites in Baltimore, Glen Mills and Chadds Ford. He currently teaches a class on financial management for the University of Delaware's Museum Studies Program, and works as a management consultant for small museums. He serves on the boards of directors of Greenbank Mills & Philips Farm and the Delaware Museum Association.

Mike said he is looking forward to working with a very dynamic and talented board of directors, volunteer corps and staff. "Working with a group of enthusiastic people toward achieving the shared goals of the organization has always been one of the greatest things about my experiences at NCHS."

Contact Mike at mconnolly@newcastlehistory.org.

Last Tuesday Cobble Gary (far left) took 55 Gunning Bedford and William Penn Digital Media students and chaperones to NYC to be in the audience of Good Morning America, then to NBC for a tour of their studios. He has done this for about 12 years at Delcastle. "I love this trip. Except the part where we have to leave at 4:00 AM" Gary says. Showing students the real world of media up close and personal, seeing how what we do in our little studio is similar to what is done professionally. The best part is the looks on their faces. He still hears from his grads that this trip was in the top 5 things about high school.... "yes I'm nuts, but getting them out of the classroom to see real life is better than any lesson plan". ## Tell them you saw it the COBBLESTONES

Here's your purrfect family cat. Roy is an outgoing, easygoing boy who makes sure he's first to greet visitors in the free-roaming cat room. He does well with other cats in the room and would be open to living with other cats in a home. Roy also has the cutest kitten mittens with his extra toes, which are technically known as polydactyl.
