"The Story of the Delaware Continentals"

Speaker: Chris Mlynarczyk, President - 1st Delaware Regiment

Come and learn the history of the First Delaware Regiment of the Continental Army. Widely regarded as one of the best fighting units in Washington's army, the Delaware's were among the fiercest fighters of the war. Join us for a discussion of their history and exploits - from Long Island to Princeton to Cowpens to Yorktown - the history of the Delawares is the history of the American War for Independence.

Wed., February 18

"Seized in September: Revolutionary War Comes to Delaware"

Wed., February 25

"Setting The Record Straight: Dispelling New Castle's Historical Myths"

A panel of historians, Brian Cannon from the Court House, and Michele Anstine from the Read House & Gardens join Mike Connolly for this enlightening presentation.

To make this a truly community based event, they are asking for your help for the Historical Myth Busing presentation. Please share any "facts" that you've heard about New Castle history, and then thought "Is that really true?" Those are the kinds of things we are looking to explore in our new program. For example - was there really a tunnel that connected the Amstel House to the David Finney Inn? Hmmm. . .

We'll pick the most interesting suggestions, look at the evidence and let you know what we find out - but you'll have to come to the program at 7 pm on Feb 25 at the Arsenal to find out!

SNOW

The big news was the no show Blizzard of '15. Monday saw schools closing early as friends and neighbors descended on supermarkets, hardware stores and beverage centers. Not necessarily in that order. They shored up on supplies for the days ahead of isolation. Teased all day by a blowing inch of white stuff, TV procrastinators promised that by dawns first light there would be empty streets and bags of salt at the ready. So ready that some supplies got stolen off the door stoops about town I'm told. The daffodils and crocus are still sleeping so there will be another mass hysteria soon enough. They say New Jersey came to a standstill for a blizzard

St. Anthony's Club

In 1933 the No. 3 Public School building at the north end of Gray Street was abandoned in favor of the new William Penn School located on Delaware Street between 9th and 10th Streets.

The president of the Society suggested to the membership that it purchase the building in the name of the Society for its use.

Vincenzo DiMenco conceived the idea to found an Italian Club. Others who played an important role were Luigi Marcozzi and Guido DeAscanis.

It was suggested that a meeting be held for the purpose of purchasing the building. The Board of Education was approached and offered $500.00 for the building. The members promptly raised the money to purchase it and renovations began in 1935. The building was ready for occupancy in 1936.

With the purchase of the building the activities moved to that location. The club provided the Italian Community with a unique meeting place and social life. The St. Anthony's Society, the St. Anthony's band and citizenship classes were organized. A strong sports program was established where players and spectators participated enthusiastically.

On Sundays and week days the men would play cards and bocce ball. Later a full sports was put into effect-baseball and football. There were a number of championship teams prior to World War II. After World War II a Little League ball team as well as a Semi Pro baseball and softball team were sponsored. In football a new name was added – 'St. Anthony's Sons of Rest team' coached by Dominick Manetti and Salvatore Arcidiacono. Picnics were held during the summer months at White Crystal Beach in Maryland.

The club also served as a Social Hall where small parties and American citizenship classes were held. It became the center of St. Anthony's Day celebrations.

Service to Our Country

During World War I Francesco Ianni was decorated with the Silver Star while serving in France. Relio DeBoto served with distinction in France and he along with Philip Susi was prominent in the Delaware National Guard. With the outbreak of World War II many sons of the now established immigrants served in the Armed Forces of the United States. A number of them achieved high rank in the Army and National Guard.

Anthony Marcozzi, son of Carlo, was killed in action while serving in France with the 101st Airborne Division. Americo Coccia became a Captain in the Army. Lt. Col. Julian Cini Jr. was one of Army's leading Air Defense experts. Francis Ianni Jr. a graduate of West Point retired as a Colonel and was appointed Adjutant General of the Delaware National Guard in 1977 with the rank of Major General. Pasquale Marinelli, James Marcozzi, Augustine DiGirolamo and Anthony Quattrociocchi achieved the rank of Brig. General. James Sulpizi was a Col. and Joseph DiAngelo retired as Lt Col. in the National Guard.

Civic Leaders

A number of citizens played an important role in the civic and political life of the community. Joseph DiMondi was the first Italian to be elected as a member of the Trustees of New Castle Common. Later Francis DeAscanis and Henry Gambacorta joined its ranks. The Trustees of the Common, whose members are elected for life, administer the lands left in 'Common' by the Dutch in 1651, and reaffirmed by William Penn in 1701 for the benefit of the citizens of New Castle.

Pasquale Marinelli, Daniel Susi and Philip Susi served on the New Castle City council. John T. Cini also served on council and also as the Chief of Police. Paul Camponelli served on council and as police officer.

Although various persons in the Italian community played important roles none was so broadly involved as Philip Susi in various civic activities.

Philip came to America when he was 10 yrs old. He attended the local schools and acquired a good speaking knowledge of English. Since the other Italians could not speak English, Philip served as their interpreter. This put him in a unique position of being involved in every facet of the Italian community. He served as President of St. Anthony's Day celebration and St. Anthony's Club. He played important roles in St. Anthony Society and band. Philip served on City Council for a number of years. He was also president of Goodwill Fire Co and the County Fireman's Association, president of New Castle Little League, coach and manager of St. Anthony's baseball and football teams, Chairman of the 3rd District Democratic Organization, and was active in the National Guard. He singlehandedly built the Little League Association into a dynamic organization for youth. With the help of Joseph DiMondi materials were donated to build six playing fields for both boys and girls. Philip has been honored by the Italian Community as well as the Fire Company and Little League Association. Joseph DiMondi, prior to his death in 1974 was active in St. Anthony's Society and celebration. He was a great supporter of the Little League and Democratic Party. Today the Italian community has matured from an immigrant community to a well established and important segment of this small town on the Delaware River.

Sassy Nails clipped

Our NC City Police are investigating a burglary that occurred shortly before 1am Thursday at the Sassy Nails business on Ferry Cut-off. Officers responded to that business for a burglary alarm around 1am and discovered the break in. A New Castle County Police K-9 conducted a track for the suspect with negative results. Undisclosed items were taken from the establishment, and police are continuing to investigate.

Taco Bell victim of forced take-out

Our NC City Police are investigating a robbery that occurred Thursday shortly after 7am at the Taco Bell in Airport Plaza. The bandit entered the store, punched an employee and forced the manager, at knifepoint, to open the safe. On the suspect's way out, he emptied a cash register and fled to an awaiting green vehicle that was parked in the Farmer's Market parking lot. Police believe it is possible that another vehicle was involved. An undisclosed amount of cash was taken from the safe and the register. The employee sustained a minor injury and refused medical treatment.

Anyone with information regarding these incidents is being asked to contact police at 322-9800

Hewlett-Packard (that once lived in Avondale) introduced a revolutionary new product to the pocket protector crowd. The HP-35 hand held pocket calculator sold for $395. About 1970 HP co-founder Bill Hewlett challenged his co-workers to take that desktop computer and make it small enough to fit into his shirt pocket. "We figured, in the first year, if we could sell 10,000 calculators, we'd break even. We sold 100,000." By the time the HP-35 Scientific Calculator was discontinued in 1975, just three and one-half years after its introduction, more than 300,000 had been sold. See the introductory article: ▶ HP 35 hand-held in a $100 billion Colorado tax fraud scheme skipped sentencing to play a round of golf Wednesday.

Three convicts

The defendants were arrested Thursday after they failed to appear in court for their sentencing. George Brokaw, John Pawelski and Mimi Vigil were escorted into court in handcuffs wearing street clothes, the Denver Post reports.

"We did go golfing," Pawelski admitted to the Judge in U.S. District Court. "I shot a 49, which is pretty good for me."

Pawelski and Brokaw were granted a request to have the trio's sentences postponed, while threatening to gag Vigil if she did not behave herself.

Pawelski and Brokaw explained to the judge that they did not attend the hearings because an unnamed legal adviser told them the convictions would be "abrogated."

A jury convicted the trio on 18 tax fraud counts in November. The three defendants rarely attended the trial. Arguello reset the convicts' sentencing for Feb. 10.

Cobblestones is growing!

Every Sunday morning, more than 625 "Cobbles" (plus 350+ Facebook followers) receive their weekly dose of New Castle's comings and goings, lite gossip and other good and interesting stuff! Cobblestones is my "fun" project, a service to the community. There is no charge to community organizations for their listings.

Keeping in mind the 'community fun philosophy' Cobblestones is free of political or social issue advertising.

Space for commercial/business ads require a donation of $50 to cover time and materials.

That covers four random insertions.

Checks made to me personally.

Ads should be a moderate size.

A jpg or PDF works the best. Let me know early in the week an approx. size with a final copy Thursday. If it's just a listing for "events", please send me copy as soon as possible.

Anything I can do to help, let me know.
