They had their say...it's your turn now!

Close to a hundred interested citizens came to the Arasapha Garden Club sponsored Candidates Forum last Wednesday evening. Nancy Coning posed the submitted questions while Dorsey Fisk acted as timekeeper.

Seated in front of the stage were the three mayoralty candidates: Reese, Padmalingam and Hickman. Ratchford and Megginson each vying for Council President. Two seats on City Council are sought by incumbents Vannucci and Cochran. Challengers include Blest, Bungy, DiMondi, Emory, Robinett and Windle will join them when votes are cast this Saturday, April 11th at the NC Senior Center between 8am and 6:30 pm. After introducing themselves, the candidates expressed their views on oil trains traveling through the City, drainage and flooding issues, annexation and property taxes as well as the quality of life in New Castle. See the New Castle Weekly for full coverage.

SURRENDER

In conjunction with a major event at Appomattox Court House National Historical Park, the National Park Service and its partners invite communities across the nation to join in this commemoration. The bells will ring first at Appomattox at 3pm on April 9th. The ringing will coincide with the moment the historic meeting between Grant and Lee in the McLean House at Appomattox Court House ended. While Lee's surrender did not end the Civil War, the act is seen by most Americans as the symbolic end of four years of bloodshed.

After the ringing at Appomattox, bells will reverberate across the country. The First State National Historical Park, in collaboration with the Delaware Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs, First State Heritage Park, Lewes Historical Society, and the Old Swedes Foundation, is orchestrating bell-ringing at sites across Delaware.

Houses of worship, schools, city halls, public buildings, historic sites, and others are invited to join in the commemoration by ringing their bells at precisely 3:15 p.m. on Thurs., April 9th. Bells should continue ringing for four minutes (each minute symbolic of a year of war).

NOTICE TO BID

The City of New Castle is seeking sealed bids, and qualification statements, from firms/providers interested in providing any one coverage or combination of coverages for the following municipal insurance options:

(1) Property and Casualty Insurance; (2) Public Officials Liability and Police Liability Insurance from July 1, 2015-June 30, 2016. Interested respondents must submit their bids, along with their qualification statements, by 9 a.m. on Friday, May 1st, 2015, at the New Castle City Administration office, 220 Delaware Street, New Castle, DE 19720. Documentation submitted must include a statement concerning the degree to which assistance shall be provided by the respondent to the City in completing all documentation required by carriers for applications.

Submittals must also include the names of proposed carriers from which quotes are intended to be sought. The City reserves the right to approve and assign carriers to the various respondents by providing broker of record letters.

Submittals provided after the deadline will not be considered.

The intended result of this process is for the City to select one or more providers whose primary task will be to secure insurance premium quotes from insurance carriers for the lines of insurance listed above. You can request a bid package by calling (302) 322-9801, and one will be emailed to you, or sent by mail if requested.

The City reserves the right to reject any and all qualifications, to waive technical defects in the qualifications, and to select the qualifications deemed most advantageous to the City.

Any questions should be emailed to the City Administrator, William Barthel, at bbarthel@newcastlecity.org and the City will compile all questions and send responses to all bidders.

Apotheosis of the Family

Recently a reader asked whatever happened to 'that mural' that was in the WSFS lobby on Market Street. Well, 'that mural' is N.C. Wyeth's Apotheosis of the Family. The 19-by-60 foot stately work of art had adorned the two-story lobby since 1932. In 1929, former WSFS Bank President, Frederick E. Stone, commissioned Delaware Valley painter and illustrator, N.C. Wyeth to create a mural for the south wall lobby. The completed masterpiece, was unveiled in 1932.

The mural presently is with Ely Company, which is providing museum quality, climate-controlled storage for the artwork. The Delaware Historical Society is working on plans to conserve and possibly exhibit the mural at a yet-to-be-determined date. DHS's Scott Loehr tells Cobblestones that after a future capital campaign the mural may be ready for public display. A three-to-five-year time frame is somewhat realistic. In the scheme of fine art for future generations it's a short wait. – Teditor

CobbleJohn's
Limo business has some humorous benefits that he will share with us from time to time. So here are actual conversations, questions or statements from the back seat while transporting pilots and flight attendants...keep in mind they are usually in our area for the first time...some things, you just don't want the passengers to hear.

Transporting 3 flight attendants from New Castle Airport to PHL last week.

FA - I hear Delaware has no sales tax.

ME - Yes, that's right. FA - Even on beer? ME - Yes, even on beer.

FA - Good, can we get some?

A little later going up I-495 near near Edgemoor:

FA - Is that the Atlantic Ocean?

ME - Yes ma'am...and that land over there is West Africa...
but here we call it Jersey.

FA - Oh...that's cool.

ME - \** (Did you really need a beer) ****

Waiting in Trenton for pilots to call for pickup. They are late. Finally pilot calls:

ME - Hey, you finally made it. Are you still in the plane... should I pull around?

PILOT - We're still in the plane, but don't pull around. ME - ?

PILOT - Well, we went by twice but didn't see the airport, so we landed in Philly.

Dropped pilot off at hotel. 10 minutes later I hear Gilligan's Island theme coming from back seat. Pilot forgot his phone. Really? Gilligan's Island is your ringtone?

Let's look back at last week's DeNorml "Marijuana March"
supporting the passage of HB

39. It was a cold and windy afternoon when this small cluster of supporters organized on the Green and marched through our City streets. The event surprised some of our citizenry that didn't know of advanced publicity. Comments from social media and around town included:

This should go in the Guinness Book of World records as the shortest March ... thought it was the tail end of the St. Patrick's Day Parade just waking up ... they were all chanting different stuff, like "End the weed prohibition, Vote for house bill 39 and I want Taco Bell"...They could've all fit in a Fiat 500 and hit the drive through backwards...They could went to taco bell and use soft taco shells to make Cheech n Chong joints. Rumor has it that the town squirrel population cleaned up the trail of Doritos.
