ever had Kentucky HOT BROWNS

A Kentucky classic from the Brown Hotel in Louisville, a Kentucky Hot Brown is an open-faced turkey sandwich, topped with a rich Mornay sauce and garnished with slices of fresh tomato and crisp bacon.

Serves 4

need gonna

1 ½ tsps finely chopped onion - 1 ½ tbsps unsalted butter - 2 tbsps all-purpose flour - 1 ½ cups milk - a pinch of cayenne - 1 tbsp dry Sherry - ¾ cup grated extra-sharp Cheddar - 4 slices of homemade-type white bread, toasted lightly - ½ lb cooked turkey breast, sliced thin - 4 thin slices of tomato - 8 slices of cooked bacon - 1 tbsp freshly grated Parmesan

let's do it!

1. In a small saucepan cook the onion in the butter over moderately low heat, stirring, until it is softened, stir in the flour, and cook the roux, stirring, for 3 minutes. Remove the pan from the heat and add the milk, scalded, in a stream, whisking vigorously until the mixture is thick and smooth. Add the cayenne and salt and pepper to taste and simmer the sauce, stirring occasionally, for 10 to 15 minutes, or until it is thickened to the desired consistency. Strain the sauce through the fine sieve into a bowl and add the Sherry and Cheddar, stirring until the mixture is smooth.
2. Arrange the toasts in a baking pan and divide the turkey among them. Top each sandwich with a tomato slice and 2 slices of the bacon and spoon the sauce evenly over the sandwiches. Sprinkle the sandwiches with the Parmesan and broil them under a preheated broiler about 4 inches from the heat for 5 to 7 minutes, or until the tops are brown and bubbly.

the traditional beverage of Churchill Downs

Each year, almost 120,000 Mint Juleps are served over the two-day period

2 cups sugar

2 cups water

Sprigs of fresh mint

Crushed ice

Straight Bourbon Whisky

Silver Julep Cups

Make a simple syrup by boiling sugar and water together for five minutes. Cool and place in a covered container with six or eight sprigs of fresh mint, then refrigerate overnight. Make one julep at a time by filling a julep cup with crushed ice, adding one tablespoon mint syrup and two ounces of Kentucky Whisky. Stir rapidly with a spoon to frost the outside of the cup. Garnish with a sprig of fresh mint.

Tom Clancy is a sweet, gentle senior with lots of spark for life. At eight years old, Tom enjoys going for a daily stroll, and he's a model dog on the leash. He's also perfectly content just lounging around for some quality bonding time. Tom would do well with a low-key dog like him, and he wouldn't mind kids in the home. Have a soft spot for him? Tom Clancy can be adopted at a fee you name through Sunday, April 29th..

Full Pink Moon

Today's full Moon heralded the appearance of the moss pink, or wild ground phlox (one of the first spring flowers). It is also known as the Sprouting Grass Moon, the Egg Moon, and the Fish Moon.

Historically, Native Americans living in what is now the northern and eastern United States kept track of the seasons by giving a distinctive name to each full Moon. This name was used to refer to the entire month in which the Moon occurred.

Cinco de Mayo

Most people don't know that back in 1912, Hellmann's mayonnaise was still manufactured in England.

In fact, the Titanic was carrying 12,000 cases of the condiment scheduled for delivery in Vera Cruz, Mexico, which was to be the next port of call for the great ship after its stop in New York. For reasons of historical interest, the popularity of mayonnaise in Mexico at this time was phenomenal. This would have been the largest single shipment of mayonnaise ever delivered to Mexico.

But as we know, the great ship did not make it to New York. The ship hit an iceberg & sank, & the cargo was forever lost.

The people of Mexico, who were fond of mayonnaise, and were eagerly awaiting its delivery, were disconsolate at the loss. Their anguish was so great, that they declared a National Day of Mourning, which they still observe to this day. The National Day of Mourning occurs each year on May 5th & is known, of course, as Sinko de Mayo.
