arasapha's May Market

On behalf of The Arasapha Garden Club, we would like to thank all of the wonderful people who supported us by buying our beautiful plants and herbs, items from My Garden to Your Garden including Alice Jarvis' hand-made pottery, baked goods, White Elephant items, quilt raffle tickets and things from our vendors.

We would especially like to thank all of our club members and community members for working tirelessly in preparing for May Market as well as working the two days of May Market. We have wonderful sponsors to thank including The New Castle Farmer's Market, Jessop's Tavern and Colonial Restaurant, The Garrison and Moore Brothers Wine Company.

May Market could not have been such a successful event without the help of the City of New Castle, The Trustees of New Castle, the New Castle Visitor Center at the Arsenal, the New Castle Community Partnership, the New Castle Hundred Lions Club, The National Honor Students from William Penn High School, The New Castle Weekly and Cobblestones. We thank you.

The funds raised go for the care of the Amstel House Garden and the Dutch House Garden. Thank you all.

Re-Accredited

St. Peter the Apostle School announced today that it has earned re-accreditation by the Middle States Association Commissions on Elementary and Secondary Schools, a worldwide leader in accreditation and continuous school improvement.

"We are pleased to have earned re-accreditation by the Middle States Association and to share in our success with the greater school community, especially the teachers, parents and students who worked so hard to make this possible," said Principal Mark Zitz. "Re-accreditation confirms and validates the work we do each and every day to ensure a top quality education for our students."

Accreditation is a self-evaluation process that schools voluntarily undergo to demonstrate they are meeting a defined set of performance standards. The accreditation process helps schools – and ultimately students – to continuously grow and improve.

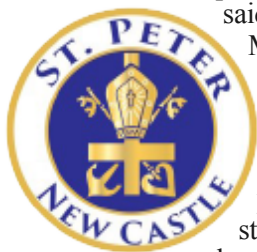

The process begins with a self-study that is conducted by the school and requires input from school leaders, teachers, parents and students. Following the self-study, a team of volunteer educators from Association member schools conducts an on-site peer review visit to observe school operations and interview various stakeholders.

The visiting team makes its recommendation to the Middle States Association Commissions, which votes on the accreditation.

"The accreditation process examines schools in a holistic way, supplementing student testing data and providing a more complete measure of a school's performance," said Henry G. Cram, Ed.D., president of the Middle States Association Commissions on Elementary and Secondary Schools.

"School leaders, teachers and parents are to be commended for working together to create a concrete plan focused on providing high quality education for all students.", fine arts, foreign language, and physical education.

Growing up in War torn London.

The day I was born, Hitler's troops annexed Austria, and the first ripple of war moved across Europe. This is a personal memory of growing up in war torn London, remembering air raids, the bombing, and the air raid shelters we slept in. After Hitler invaded Poland, England went to war, and that's when thousands of children, including my brother and sister, were evacuated to the country. After they came back my mother said, "If we are going to die, we are all going to die together."

My uncle manned one of the 'little boats' that crossed the Channel and brought back soldiers from Dunkirk. At age 16, my brother volunteered for the Merchant Navy, and he was in many convoys that constantly crossed the Atlantic in spite of German submarines.

After 6 years, the war finished, and gradually things returned to normal. For me growing up with war had been my normal, and it took a while to adjust to no blackout, sleeping in a bed, and having all the family home together.

Begonias

are full, bushy, and low-growing. Their thick, reddish stems grow from tuberous roots under the soil

Growing Begonias Year-Round

Keep the soil moist. Allowing it to dry out will leave the plant susceptible to disease. But you don't want soggy soil, either. Overwatering your begonia will cause leaves to wilt and turn yellow. Cut off any affected leaves as soon as you notice them. They're likely to rot and attract botrytis fungus.

Cut off spent flowers. Prune off dead flowers to keep your plant looking neat and to encourage more blooms.

Check foliage for fungus. Begonias are prone to powdery mildew -- a powdery white fungus that develops on its leaves. Spray an affected plant with a fungicide and keep it away from other plants to prevent it from spreading.

Boone is houndsome and he knows it! This two-year old stunner has a great personality. He's always in a friendly mood, and he loves to cuddle and interact with people of all ages. Boone is hoping for an owner who loves going for walks as much as he does, plus he's got great leash etiquette. He would like to meet any potential dog siblings to make sure it's a good match and would prefer a cat-free home. Boone can be adopted at a fee you name through Sunday, May 13th.
