Above-normal Atlantic hurricane season is most likely this year

'Weak or non-existent' El Nino is a factor

For the upcoming Atlantic hurricane season, which runs from June 1 through November 30, forecasters predict a 45 percent chance of an above-normal season, a 35 percent chance of a near-normal season, and only a 20 percent chance of a below-normal season.

"As a Florida resident, I am particularly proud of the important work NOAA does in weather forecasting and hurricane prediction," said U.S. Secretary of Commerce Wilbur Ross. "These forecasts are important for both public safety and business planning, and are a crucial function of the federal government."

Forecasters predict a 70 percent likelihood of 11 to 17 named storms (winds of 39 mph or higher), of which 5 to 9 could become hurricanes (winds of 74 mph or higher), including 2 to 4 major hurricanes (Category 3, 4 or 5; winds of 111 mph or higher). An average season produces 12 named storms of which six become hurricanes, including three major hurricanes.

Delaware's Independence Day

On June 15th in 1776, the Assembly of the Lower Counties of Pennsylvania declares itself independent of British and Pennsylvanian authority, thereby creating the state of Delaware. Delaware did not exist as a colony under British rule. As of 1704, Pennsylvania had two colonial assemblies: one for the "Upper Counties," originally Bucks, Chester and Philadelphia, and one for the "Lower Counties on the Delaware" of New Castle, Kent and Sussex. All of the counties shared one governor.

Thomas McKean and Caesar Rodney, the same two men who represented the Lower Counties in the Stamp Act Congress of 1765, proposed the Lower Counties' simultaneous separation from Pennsylvania and the British crown. McKean and Rodney, along with George Read, represented the Lower Counties at the First Continental Congress in 1774 as well as the Second Continental Congress in 1775-76. When Read refused to vote for independence, McKean had famously summoned an ailing Rodney, who rode overnight from Dover, Delaware, to Philadelphia in order to cast his vote in favor of independence and break the Delaware delegation's stalemate.

McKean and Rodney were punished for their zealous pursuit of independence in an area heavily populated by Loyalists. The first Delaware General Assembly, a body that owed its existence to McKean and Rodney, chose not to return them to the Continental Congress in October 1776. But, after Wilmington, Delaware, and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, fell under British occupation, the second General Assembly returned the two Patriots to the Continental Congress in October 1777. Both men went on to serve as president of the state of Delaware. Rodney held the post from March 31, 1778, to November 6, 1781. McKean served briefly as the acting president from September 22 until October 20, 1777, while George Read traveled from Philadelphia to assume the post, left vacant by John McKinly's capture by British troops.

Ladew Topiary Gardens

Field Trip
offered by Arasapha Garden Club

Saturday, June 17, 2017

Join us in discovering this beautiful 22+ acer gardens consisting of a historic Manor House circa 1747, topiary gardens designed as "garden rooms" devoted to a single color, a single plant or a single theme patterned after English gardens. There is also a Nature Walk you can enjoy along with viewing the Butterfly House. Ladew Gardens offer a Visitor's Center, Gift Shop, and a Café where you can enjoy lunch.

We will group up in the parking lot across from 419 South Street at 8:30 am. Once again, we will car pool to the gardens located at 3535 Jarrettsville Pike, Monkton, MD 21111 this side of Baltimore, MD. We will use I 95 and side roads to the Gardens. The travel time is approximately 1 hour 15 minutes, and is a very easy drive.

- The gardens are open from 10:00 am till 5:00 pm
- Admission: Seniors (62 or older) $15.00, Adults $18.00. This admission provides access to tour the Manor House, Topiary gardens, Nature Walk and the Butterfly House.
- Maximum number has been set at 24 people
- We will need 6 volunteer drivers
- Each person can purchase their admission ticket at the Visitor Center.

Please contact Nancy Crowder by email: crowdernl@msn.com or by phone: 302-322-9573. ## An Immigrant's Journey

Between 1892 and 1954 twelve million immigrants entered the U.S. through Ellis Island alone. Today, descendants of those immigrants account for almost half of the population of the U.S.

On Saturday, June 17th from 1-3pm, the Delaware History Museum invites families to envision the lives of 19th century immigrants. The family program, asks guests to contemplate what it must have been like for immigrants to leave their homes and make a long journey by sea to a new country where the language and customs were new.

Three hands-on stations allow participants to consider what 19th-century immigrants would pack in a bag for a long voyage and to identify everyday
