Amid health concerns

Mayor Reese resigns.

A letter to all of New Castle from Mayor Donald Reese, just Don to many, was read by Council President Linda Ratchford at Tuesday's Council meeting, to say effective Wednesday, July 12th he would resign the office of Mayor.

"With a heavy heart, and with what is best for this town we all love first on my mind, I will be resigning as Mayor of the City of New Castle. My health has declined and will not allow me to serve you in the way you have become accustomed". His letter closed with, "change starts with local politics". I have tried to live my life with this in mind. I want to thank everyone in New Castle for the honor of being your Mayor".

As he begins retirement, join me in wishing him and Connie the very best.

City Council to Appoint Mayor to Fill Vacancy

The City of New Castle is sad to announce that our beloved Mayor, Don Reese, has resigned from office. Don has been dedicated to the City of New Castle for many years, has accomplished many things, and will be sorely missed. Per the City Charter, it is the duty of the City Council to appoint someone to fill the Mayor's position to serve until the next City election, scheduled for April, 2019. The City Charter requires that qualified candidates must: (1) be a citizen of the State of Delaware, (2) be a resident of the City of New Castle; (3) have resided in the City for two years before the appointment, and (4) at the time of the appointment be a qualified voter of the City.

Anyone who is interested in being considered for the appointment to the position of Mayor to serve the remainder of Mayor Reese's term which expires in April, 2019, may register their candidacy at the City office, located at 220 Delaware St., or contact a Councilperson directly. Council will consider nominations and may vote on same at the Aug. 8th meeting.

Anyone with questions on this matter should contact Bill Barthel, City Administrator, at 302.322.9812.

Thank You!

It's with love and passionate feelings we thank everyone for being part of Caroline's, especially the churches, schools and various government bodies for supporting our restaurant. The pleasure of meeting so many new faces and making new friends is a treasure we will long cherish. The Friday evenings, private parties and sharing everyday with you (you know who you are) are gems! We are so very proud to be part of this wonderful community for so many years...seven as Caroline's.

Bless You!

STUFFED BELL PEPPERS

Stuffed red peppers sound pretty fancy, right? Who's got time for that? You do. This recipe is so simple it'll impress all of your friends, and then some. But the best part is that this recipe is delicious, nutritious and affordable. So let's get cookin'!

GATHER UP

- 1 red bell pepper - 1 CUP precooked rice - 1/2 green bell pepper, diced
 - 1/2 Roma tomato, diced - 1/4 yellow onion, chopped - 2 garlic cloves, minced
 - 1/4 CUP canned black beans, drained and rinsed - Salt and Pepper
- Preheat oven at 350°F.

STEP 1

Cut the top of the red pepper off. Then cut it in half and remove the veins and seeds.

STEP 2

Chop, dice, and mince the onion, tomato, green pepper and garlic respectively.

STEP 3

Combine the tomato, onion, garlic and green pepper in a measuring cup with the precooked rice and black beans.

STEP 4

Fill each pepper half with the rice mixture. Then cook them in the oven for about 40 minutes, checking periodically until the pepper is soft.

STEP 5

Once cooked, remove from the oven and let sit for about 5 minutes. Then plate it up, sprinkle some salt and pepper to taste, and take some pics.

The Delaware Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs is planning a number of capital improvements at the Academy building, a state-owned historic property that the agency administers in downtown New Castle. Improvements, which will begin in late summer/early fall 2017 and continue for approximately 30 days, will include replacement of the building's existing wood-shingle roof with a new wood-shingle roof; limited coating of the existing cupola and bay metal-roofs; and minor exterior-wood consolidation, repair and painting, where needed.

The real tragedy...

is that five youngsters will continue their daily lives without the love that only a mother can give. The cause may never be known. What we do know is the overwhelming caring and support of the community.

Members of the BVSPCA joined Latoya's mother, Juanetta Cooper, at the vigil Monday evening with a promise to the Cooper family. "We will be here as your extended family and you as ours, and as a part of that...we want to name a room inside of the animal health center once it is rebuilt--as it was before--in Latoya's name so we will have a plaque inside of our animal health center," said Adam Lamb, CEO of the Brandywine Valley SPCA.

SPCA officials also thanked the emergency first responders and the community who helped to save 98 animals.

Eli Martinez works at the SPCA, and he was one of the first people on the scene after the crash.

"In tragedy like this, it brings out the best in our humanity," said Martinez. "And I know personally I was praying for Latoya the whole time I was in there, for the animals that were in there that passed away, and for those that were really scared."

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Erin Kinley to manage Penn Farm

Delaware Greenways is excited to announce the hiring of a manager for Historic Penn Farm. Fresh from the Longwood Program at the University of Delaware, Erin Kinley is a jack-of-all-trades horticulturist with experiences ranging from specialty crop production and plant biology, to public garden leadership and food education. With Erin's management, Delaware Greenways will continue to care for the property, and further develop its connections to the community.
