Buildings include, from left to right, the newly built Academy (1802), a rather small Immanuel Church (the church was enlarged and the steeple added in the 1820 renovation. Some ships north of Harmony street, the house at the corner of Harmony and 2nd with its adjacent blacksmith shop, what appears to be the 4 houses of Aull's row (though they appear to have extension over the street) and the Courthouse and its outbuildings. Just what those outbuildings are is not clear but may include a jail and jail yard.

Mook is a curious yet laid-back kitty who loves to spend his time people watching. This six-year old cutie enjoys lounging by the window and observing his surroundings, so a big window sill would automatically become his "place." Mook is a pretty independent boy, but he doesn't mind being around other kitties and is friendly with folks of all ages. He's a bit uncertain around dogs, so he asks for a slow introduction. Mook can be adopted at a fee you name through Sunday, July 22nd...
