Jessop's addition plans presented to Historic Area Commission

The iconic tavern/restaurant on Delaware Street is enlarging. There will be no new seating or any changes that would be noticeable from the street. The Historic Area Commission, chaired by Laura Fontana, after the customary scrutiny (treated lumber for steps, no particle board - must use engineered wood), passed the proposed plans. The two-story addition will allow more storage, room for new refrigeration units and much needed kitchen space.

HAC member Marty Wright asked why this was an HAC matter if changes weren't visible from the street, to which Architect Leila Hamrout noted any changes to an existing building needed to be reviewed by the Commission.

Jessop's Justin Day said he's been operating with 20+ year old equipment and needs to upgrade, which includes adding 10 more draft lines. The only question to be resolved is a possible three foot reduction in depth of the addition. That will be a Board of Adjustment decision.

Commission members review final details with Justin Day and his attorney, with apologies to David Baldini out of camera range.

absolutely the best

Scrambled eggs

on the counter

4 large eggs - ¼ tsp kosher salt - 1 tbsp unsalted butter
Flaky sea salt (for serving)

the prep

Crack eggs into a medium bowl and add kosher salt. Using an immersion blender or whisk, whip eggs until completely homogenous and pale yellow in color, about 30 seconds.

makin' the best

Cook butter in an 8" nonstick skillet over medium-low heat. When foam subsides, add eggs and cook, undisturbed, until a thin layer of cooked egg appears around the edge of the skillet. Using a rubber spatula and broad sweeping motions, push eggs all the way around the circumference of the skillet, then across the bottom. Continue to push eggs around and across skillet until fluffy and barely set, about 2 minutes; they should still look runny on top. Immediately divide between 2 plates and sprinkle with sea salt.

some variations

Parmesan and Basil Stir 2 tbsp. grated Parmesan and 1 tbsp. finely chopped fresh basil into eggs halfway through cooking. Sprinkle with flaky sea salt and more basil just before serving.

Soy and Scallion Add ½ tsp. soy sauce to eggs before whipping. Stir 2 trimmed, thinly sliced scallions into eggs halfway through cooking. Sprinkle with flaky sea salt just before serving.

Cream Cheese and Chives Stir 1 tbsp. cream cheese and 1 tbsp. finely chopped fresh chives into eggs halfway through cooking. Top with flaky sea salt and more chives just before serving.

Hot Cheddar Stir 2 tbsp. grated cheddar into eggs halfway through cooking. Top with flaky sea salt and hot sauce just before serving.
