It's a centennial celebration!

NPS photos

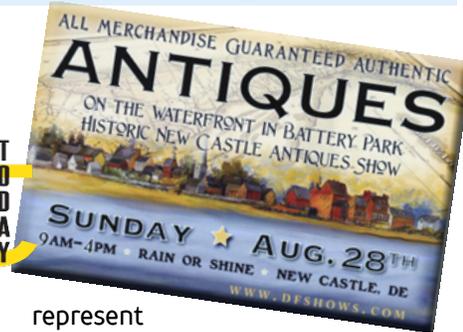

The National Park Service is celebrated its 100th anniversary by getting people in formation.

More than 1,000 kids and adults used brown, green and white umbrellas to create a living version of the park service emblem on the National Mall, which the agency photographed from a helicopter above.

The emblem contains elements symbolizing the major facets of the national park system. A Sequoia tree and bison represent vegetation and wildlife, mountains and water represent scenery and recreation and the arrowhead shape represents history and archaeology. These first 1,000 participants were allowed to keep their umbrellas and got T-shirts commemorating the event.

TODAY happening

Negimaki

on the counter

- ½ cup soy sauce • ½ cup mirin (or ¼ cup honey mixed with ¼ cup water)
- 1 tbsp minced garlic • 1 bunch scallions, trimmed but left whole
- 1 ½ lbs boneless, skinless white-meat chicken (breasts, cutlets or tenders), pounded to 1/8-inch thickness and blotted dry
- Salt • freshly ground pepper • Sesame oil • Lemon or lime wedges

makin' is easy

• Put soy sauce, mirin, garlic and scallions in a medium saucepan over medium-low heat. Cook until bubbling, 3 to 4 minutes. Turn off heat and let cool slightly.

• Prepare charcoal or gas grill; heat should be medium and rack about 4 inches from fire. Sprinkle chicken with salt and pepper on both sides. Remove scallions from soy mixture with slotted spoon and divide evenly among chicken cutlets: Turn wide side of each cutlet to face you and put 2 or 3 scallions on edge closest to you, with some scallion sticking out of each end. Roll each cutlet up like a jelly roll and secure in two or three places with toothpicks or butcher's twine. Brush chicken rolls with sesame oil.

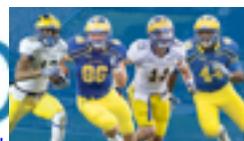

• Grill chicken, brushing occasionally with remaining soy mixture and turning each piece once or twice, until cooked through, 12 to 15 minutes. To check for doneness, cut into a piece with a thin-bladed knife; center should be white or slightly pink. Serve hot, warm or at room temperature with lemon or lime wedges. Mirin is a type of rice wine similar to sake, but with a lower alcohol content and higher sugar content. from NYTimesCooks

Welcome new Twin Span neighbors

Among the new businesses at Twin Spans, Harvey, Hanna & Associates, Inc. recently welcomed Anchor Plastics, Ltd of Quebec, Canada.

Anchor Plastics recently opened their latest North American facility by leasing 20,500 square feet of warehouse and office space at 500 Ships Landing Way in the Twins Spans Business Park (TSBP) in New Castle, Delaware.

TSBP is considered by many to be the premier distribution campus in the mid-Atlantic region, featuring 1.85 million square feet of Class A commercial warehouse space spread across 135 acres of land along the Delaware River.

Anchor Plastics, headquartered in Quebec, Canada, is widely recognized as the pioneer of manufacturing plastic containers throughout Canada while specializing in highly customizable products for various commercial customers throughout the United States. They are also well known across their industry for their expertise in plastic blow-molding technology which allows for a custom-built experience for clients of all sizes.

"Anchor Plastics is an excellent addition to the Twin Spans Business Park and they will do a great job contributing to the overall success of this park as they join an impressive roster of internationally recognized organizations," stated Thomas J. Hanna, c.o.o./ managing director, HHA. "We are excited to have them in Delaware and proud to be a part of their expansion within the region."

Condolences

It's been a sad month. The loss of so many friends in such a short period of time is unprecedented.

My brother-in-law, John who was a true gentleman and devoted Dad to his son, who lost his mother way to soon.

A long time member of the Cobblestone family, John made sure many of us enjoyed our favorite venues by chauffeuring us in style. A true friend with an ever present smile and personality to match.

Bob was a not only a good friend...he was "The Duke of New Castle". An overwhelming presence at many a Separation Day parade, the spirit at St. Patrick's Day and any occasion that required song and a story to be told. "I expect to see him as I turn every street corner in town, directing traffic with authority and in uniform" paraphrasing Rev. Nancy Rowland.

New Castle's "Judge" served on each of the State's major courts, ran for Governor and was an avid UofD football supporter. Bill and Marcia were wonderful neighbors as well. When I lived across the street from the Quillens, we had a contest of who would keep their Christmas wreath up the longest.

The benchmark was St. Patrick's Day.

Many may remember Doctor Beattie with his office on Dalby Alley and home, The Van Leuvenigh House. After serving in Korea, he set up practice as a doctor, earned a single-engine pilot license, was selected as the 1967 Delaware Fireman of the Year, served as church vestry and senior warden of Immanuel on the Green Episcopal. One friend remembers, "He was personally interested in his patients. As a teenager we talked high school sports whenever I had an appointment".

Lastly, a fixture at St. Anthony's Club, Albert personified what a true New Castilian was. Twice serving on City Council and always ready to lend a helping hand and support a worthy cause.

Yes, it's been a sad month.

Hi, my name is Coalie and I am a large and in charge pretty female tabby looking for a home. I love nothing more than to lounge around but I will hop up to greet you and enjoy a gentle ear and head massage. I am quiet, sweet and good natured, and have lived harmoniously with other cats at the shelter. I hope that you come meet me and see what a gem I am! I am spayed, microchipped and up to date on vaccinations so I am ready to pack up my things and go home with you!

RECYCLING REGULATIONS

Proposed Universal Recycling Regulations
Public Workshops
Division: Waste and Hazardous Substances

The Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control (DNREC) Division of Waste and Hazardous Substances (DWHS) will hold public workshops on proposed new Universal Recycling Regulations. The purposes of the proposed regulations are to ensure: that collection services for recyclable materials are consistent with the law; the collected recyclable materials are not landfilled or incinerated; the recyclable materials are properly processed and enter the marketplace; recycling in Delaware can be effectively measured; and that waste diversion is maximized through the reduction of solid waste deposited in our landfills.

The workshops will be held on: September 6th at The Bear Library, 101 Governor's Place, Bear, DE. 19701; September 7th at DNREC Lewes Field Office, 901 Pilottown Road, Lewes DE. 19958; and September 14th at DNREC, 89 Kings Highway SW, Dover, DE. 19901. All workshops will be held from 3 - 4:30p.m.

Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the National Historic Preservation Act

Sept. 24th - 4pm
Historic Penn Farms
New Castle
3rd Annual Harvest Dinner

Guests will enjoy the farm-to-table culinary creations of Chefs Dwain Kalup from Domaine Hudson, Andrew Feeley from Sodel Concepts and Taylor Payton from Eclipse Bistro, prepared by the students of The Crop Foundation. The farm-fresh menu will be paired with local beers, wine and a signature farm fresh cocktail.

Attendees will explore the farm on a guided tour and learn about life at Historic Penn Farm from Farmer Toby and the Delaware Greenways team. Other speakers include local farmer Jim Short, of Country Boy in Dover, DE. Country Boy will also be providing guests with a taste of his farm-raised Berkshire pig.

The event will feature music by Dave DeWhitt and DJ Lew The Mailman, exciting raffles and prizes, and an impressive array of silent auction items.

Class is in session and tickets are available now! Early bird tickets are available for $65 per person until September 4th, and are $75 after that date. The Crop Foundation will be offering a discounted group rate for parties 8 or more at $55 per person.

Tickets can be purchased at <http://bit.ly/Farm101>.
