RECOMMENDATIONS ON PREVENTION

In a report, written by Allan Zarembski, an expert in rail operations and structures at the University of Delaware, said there is "concern about the level of risk" on lines where Norfolk Southern and CSX haul oil trains, even though safety measures recently taken by the railroad industry and the U.S. Department of Transportation have been "of great value."

Zarembski proposed 27 measures designed to prevent derailments, improve the resilience of tank cars in the event of a derailment, and help state and local emergency responders to deal with a catastrophic event,

It urged NS and CSX, both of which haul oil trains through Philadelphia, to voluntarily reduce oil-train speeds to 35 m.p.h. in cities with a population of more than 100,000 people. That speed reduction, if adopted, would further reduce a 40 m.p.h. limit set by the U.S. Transportation Department in its own updated regulations, issued in May.

The report also urged officials to set a series of minimum inspection standards. These include requiring track geometry to be tested at least four times a year, and designating state and local officials to work with the two railroads on improving safety standards.

Though Dr. Zarembski's report was written for Pennsylvania it's worth a Delaware read. Read it here

Recommendations

A total of 27 recommendations are presented in this report; divided into primary (18) and secondary (9) categories. Primary categories are those expected to have direct safety results and which can be implemented by the railroads directly working with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or by the Commonwealth itself. Secondary categories include activities which are more difficult to implement or which may require action by a party other than the railroad or Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Roasted Fennel and New Jersey Tomato Salad

Ingredients 3 Jersey tomatoes • 2 lg fennel bulbs, sliced • 3 tbsp. olive oil • 1 tbsp. champagne vinegar • 1 tbsp. orange juice • 1 tbsp. fresh tarragon, chopped • 1 tbsp. Obis One black crack • salt and black pepper to taste

4. Meanwhile, whisk together olive oil, vinegar, tarragon, orange juice and Black Crack.
5. Combine cooked fennel, julienned tomatoes and add dressing. Mix until well blended.

bison coming to christiana

Twas reported in the News Journal recently that Ted's Montana Grill will open (by early 2017) at the Christiana Fashion Center. Ted's features beef and bison that once grazed on the plains of Montana. Menu items include steaks and burgers. Bison is seen as a healthier alternative to beef.

Would you be interested in a plot at Penn Farm to grow you veggies?

There's a possibility, if enough interest is shown, of providing plots on the Farm for the personal use to New Castle residents. If you like the idea, send a note to flytedb13@comcast.net with PLOT GARDEN in the subject line.

Tell what you would like to grow, size plot expected, concerns you may have and what rules you would suggest.

The Cobble staff will compile the the results and present them to Delaware Greenways.
