The award-winning film produced and directed by Ken Burns, will be rebroadcast over five consecutive nights. The broadcast, which coincides with the 25th anniversary of the series' initial broadcast in September 1990, will present for the first time a newly restored, high-definition version. This is also the first time the film will be seen with the same fidelity and framing as the negative that Burns and his co-cinematographers Allen Moore and Buddy Squires shot more than 25 years ago.

The Marquis de Lafayette and the Battle of the Brandywine

This Wednesday, September 9th, at 7pm at the Court House, local author and historian, Gene Pisasale will present an illustrated presentation on the little known role the Marquis de Lafayette played in America's war for independence.

The Marquis de Lafayette was a French aristocrat who joined the American Revolutionary War and became one of America's most successful leaders in combat and George Washington's most loyal companion. On September 11, 1777, during the Battle of Brandywine in Chadds Ford, the American army was surrounded and outnumbered by Generals Howe and Cornwallis's British troops. Washington's army was forced to retreat. Lafayette organized the retreat, and in spite of being wounded, was responsible for getting all the men out safely. His ongoing support militarily, politically, and financially helped win the war against Great Britain.

Apple Pie BITES

Get @ Market

1 qt Vegetable oil • 1 pk Prepared refrigerated pie crust
1 can Apple Pie Filling • 1 tbsp Pure maple syrup
1 tsp Cinnamon

For the coating

3 tbsp Butter • ½ c Sugar • ¼ c Cinnamon

Now here's how

1. Preheat oil in a large pot over medium heat. Oil should reach temperatures between 350°-375° F
2. While oil is heating, prepare the dumplings. Preheat pie filling on stovetop over medium heat until warm. Combine with maple syrup and cinnamon. Remove from heat and set aside.
3. Remove pie crust from packaging. Roll out slightly to help thin it out.
4. First, cut circles, at least 3.25" in diameter and then cut circles in half. Once I ran out of crust, I combined the leftovers and re-rolled the crust to cut more circles.
5. Take one half of the circle and spoon some pie filling into the middle.
6. Use your fingers to pinch the edges to seal. It will be helpful if you have a spoon or butter knife to help keep these stuffed as you are pinching the edges.
7. Use extreme caution for next step. Oil will be very hot. When the oil is heated, carefully place several pie bites in the oil to fry. Use a set of long tongs to turn the pie bites over and the first side begins to turn light brown (about 30 seconds per side).
8. After each side is browned, use tongs to remove from oil and place on a plate lined with paper towels to cool.
9. When all bites are finished, prepare the coating. In a microwave safe bowl, melt butter, about 20-30 seconds.
10. In a large Ziploc bag, combine cinnamon and sugar. Add additional cinnamon if desired.
11. Brush each side of the pie bites with butter. Place into Ziploc bag and seal the bag. Gently shake the bag until pie bites are coated with cinnamon and sugar. Remove from bag and

LABOR DAY

Observed on the first Monday in September, Labor Day pays tribute to the contributions and achievements of American workers. It was created by the labor movement in the late 19th century and became a federal holiday in 1894. Labor Day also symbolizes the end of summer for many Americans, and is celebrated with parties, parades and athletic events. As manufacturing increasingly supplanted agriculture as the wellspring of American employment, labor unions, which had first appeared in the late 18th century, grew more prominent and vocal. They began organizing strikes and rallies to protest poor conditions and compel employers to renegotiate hours and pay. Many of these events turned violent during this period, including the infamous Haymarket Riot of 1886, in which several Chicago policemen and workers were killed. Others gave rise to longstanding traditions: On September 5, 1882, 10,000 workers took unpaid time off to march from City Hall to Union Square in New York City, holding the first Labor Day parade in U.S. history.

The idea of a “workingmen’s holiday,” celebrated on the first Monday in September, caught on in other industrial centers across the country, and many states passed legislation recognizing it. Congress would not legalize the holiday until 12 years later, when a watershed moment in American labor history brought workers’ rights squarely into the public’s view. On May 11, 1894, employees of the Pullman Palace Car Company in Chicago went on strike to protest wage cuts and the firing of union representatives.

Many credit Peter J. McGuire, cofounder of the American Federation of Labor, while others have suggested that Matthew Maguire, a secretary of the Central Labor Union, first proposed the holiday. Labor Day is still celebrated in cities and towns across the United States with parades, picnics, barbecues, fireworks displays and other public gatherings.

For many Americans, particularly children and young adults, it represents the end of the summer and the start of the back-to-school season, although school year starting days now vary.

HAUNTINGS IN HISTORY TOURS

Join the Hauntings

Fridays and Saturdays,

Oct. 23 & 24, & 30

at 7, 7:30 and 8:30pm.

If you are brave enough to explore the darker side of New Castle's history, then join the New Castle Historical Society this October for the only ghost tour that brings you inside one of the most haunted mansions of Old New Castle!

You'll begin your journey into New Castle's supernatural side with a tour of the legendary Amstel House - one of New Castle's most haunted houses - where you may meet the "Woman in Blue." After exploring the Amstel House, you will be guided through New Castle's darkened streets and alleyways where you will hear macabre tales of hauntings, Victorian death & funeral customs, and crime & punishment that span the 360-year history of this Delaware River town.

New Castle Historical Society is seeking volunteers. Three people interpreting at the Amstel House (one each night), and helpers to sign in.

Would you be interested in a plot at Penn Farm to grow you veggies?

There's a possibility, if enough interest is shown, of providing plots on the Farm for the personal use to New Castle residents. If you like the idea, send a note to flytedb13@comcast.net with PLOT GARDEN in the subject line.

Tell what you would like to grow, size plot expected, concerns you may have and what rules you would suggest.

The Cobble staff will compile the the results and present them to Delaware Greenways.
