TRUSTEES CORNER

Bicentennial Park public restroom idea flushed...for now.

A large turnout of concerned residents voiced their opposition to the much talked about and speculated public restroom in the center of town at Tuesday's first Trustees meeting of the season.

Many sited that property/home values would be seriously affected and suggested that other alternative sites be made available. Trustee president Henry Gambacorta stated that the trustees had nothing to do with the proposed idea and it was a matter for City Council.

Michelle Quaranta said she always makes her 2nd Act business welcome to shoppers in need of the 'facilities'. As does the Court House Museum, Cindy Snyder said. But during open hours only. The public restroom, a stone's throw away in Battery Park, was inadequate and lacked directional signage. Having a facility available 24/7 is extremely costly. Tour operators often tell guests to "take care of business before we get to New Castle".

Taking the biggest hit of the evening was the National Park Service. Their vision of increased tourists visiting town and a Welcome Center have fallen way short. Many asked why the Sheriff's House (once an envisioned visitors center) couldn't be utilized. Funding from the "Feds" just isn't there and likely won't be for the foreseeable future. The New Castle Historical Society has taken the lead to welcome tourists but that's a costly venture too. Some feel that visitors to town visiting museums and businesses will be accommodated by restaurants and shops they visit.

Apple Cider Doughnuts with Honey Bourbon Glaze

INGREDIENTS

for the DOUGHNUTS

Cooking spray 2 cups flour ½ cup sugar 1½ tps baking powder
 ½ tsp baking soda ½ tsp salt
 1/2 cup apple cider ¼ cup buttermilk 2 tbsps butter melted
 2 eggs

for the GLAZE ¼ cup your favorite bourbon ¼ cup Honey ½ cup sugar
 1 tbsp ground cinnamon

INSTRUCTIONS

for the DOUGHNUTS Preheat oven to 400°F. Lightly coat two 6-cavity doughnut pans with cooking spray.
 In a large bowl, whisk together flour, sugar, baking powder, baking soda, and salt. In a separate bowl, whisk together cider, buttermilk, melted butter, and eggs. Stir wet ingredients into flour mixture until it comes together in a thick batter. Take care not to over mix. Scrape batter into a zip-top plastic bag. Snip one corner and pipe into prepared doughnut pan. Batter should come three-fourths of the way up the sides.
 Bake for 8-10 minutes, or until a pick inserted in doughnut side comes out clean and doughnut springs back when lightly pressed. Cool in pan for 5 minutes, remove, and cool completely.

for the GLAZE

In a small saucepan, combine bourbon with honey and heat over low until honey is dissolved. Pour glaze into a bowl. In a separate bowl, stir together sugar and cinnamon and pour onto a shallow plate.
 Dip a doughnut into glaze, flipping to coat, then into cinnamon sugar mixture. Repeat with remaining doughnuts and serve.

Grounds for Sculpture

In late October, fall foliage should provide a beautiful back drop.

The sculptures are located in various nooks and crannies throughout the grounds. Some sculptures are very life-like, including the larger-than-life sculpture of Marilyn Monroe installed in May of 2014. Peacocks can be viewed walking around and near The Peacock Café. There is a 12-minute video about the grounds in the Welcome Center along with site maps and catalogues. Bring your cameras as you will have many photo opportunities.

Cost: Reservations have been made for a min of 15 guests to enter the grounds at 10:30AM. This advanced reservation enables the cost per person to be reduced to $12. If the number of committed attendees turns out to be less than 15, the price per person will be $13 for age 65+, and $16 for under 65.

Tickets are for a TIMED ENTRANCE and so must be purchased in advance. There are no refunds so this is a rain or shine event. Tickets purchased at the gate would be at full price ($15.00 and $18.00), and there would be no guarantee that you would be able to enter the grounds with the rest of our group.

Dining options: There are three restaurants on the grounds. Rat's Restaurant requires reservations, The Peacock Café, and the Van Gogh Café are open seating.

Departure time will be 9:00AM on Saturday, October 29th. We will once again be carpooling. We will group up at the parking lot across from Judie Baldini's house (400 South Street, New Castle, DE). Travel time is approximately 1 hour and 20 minutes using Rte. 295 and secondary roads.

To register: Contact Nancy Crowder by phone at 302.322.9573 or email at crowdernl@msn.com

Deadline for registration is OCTOBER 14th. This is a FIRM CUT-OFF DATE. Nancy Crowder must pay in advance for the tickets. Those registered to attend can pay Nancy by cash or check (payable to Arasapha Garden Club) at the meet-up on Saturday morning, October 29th.

NEW TIME Worship at New Castle United Methodist Church is changing effective July 3rd. We will now have ONE service at 10:00 am on Sundays.

Children's Sunday School at 10 am for kids 10 and under. The Bible encourages us to share, to not only share the Good News of Jesus, but to share our very lives because we care for each other. By the Holy Spirit we are one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world. We invite you to join us on this journey of unity and love in Jesus Christ!
