Lacking a quorum last Tuesday, City Council did its best to present business as usual. Council President Linda Ratchford noted at the beginning that appointments on the agenda and some agenda business wouldn't be addressed. City Administrator Bill Barthel reported on a meeting with Delaware Solid Waste Authority regarding the compliance of residents separating recyclables from trash. More next week.

It didn't take long for the Pokémon issue to surface. Many in the crowded room felt Council was more concerned about the gamers than the residents.

Two Historic Towns Team Together For One Amazing Festival!

RIVER TOWNS RIDE & Festival

is a one-day joint festival held between the two historic waterfront towns of New Castle and Delaware City. This year's event will be held on Saturday, October 1st from 11:30-5 pm

The two towns are 10 miles apart and connected by the bike-friendly corridor of Route 9. The event will feature 9am competitive bicycling time trials component for cash and prizes AND a recreational ride where cyclists can pick their distance and ride for fun or earn a medal.

Festivals will be held in New Castle's Historic Green and Delaware City's Battery Park starting at 11:30. Activities at both include live music, food, drink, children's games, hay ride, face painting and pumpkins to decorate.

The highlight of the event will be a craft beer festival at both the New Castle Green and Delaware City Battery Park.

16 craft brews will be available.

Admission is free and food, drink and beer are available for purchase. A free shuttle bus is provided for day-long transportation between each town.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

A community festival like this needs the participation of the community. Please volunteer a few hours of your time to make this an exciting and fun event for New Castle.

Volunteers are needed in these areas

- Kids Pumpkin Decorating Table
 - Set Up/Take Down of Tables and Chairs
 - Aid Station-hand out water
 - Beer Ticket Sales, ID checks & Wrist Bands
- Please email Cindy Snyder- Cynthia.Snyder@state.de.us or call 302-323-4453

Let us know which areas and what times you can help. Thank You!

Short Rib Pot Pie

Shortening is the secret to extra-flaky pie crust, but nothing compares to the flavor of butter. Use both, as in this super-luxe beef pie, and you're golden.

crust

- 3 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 tsp kosher salt
- ½ (1 stick) chilled unsalted butter
- ½ cup vegetable shortening or beef lard

Filling & assembly

3 lbs boneless beef short ribs, cut into 2" pieces

Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper

½ cup all-purpose flour, plus more

2 tbsp olive oil • 1 10-oz. package frozen pearl onions, thawed • 4 garlic cloves, chopped • 2 tbsp tomato paste • 2 cups dry red wine • 2 sprigs rosemary • 6 sprigs thyme, plus 2 Tbsp. chopped thyme • Flaky sea salt (such as Maldon) • Heavy cream (for brushing)

Makin it

crust

Pulse flour and salt in a food processor; add butter and shortening and pulse until mixture resembles coarse meal with a few pea-size pieces of butter remaining. Transfer flour mixture to a large bowl and drizzle with ½ cup ice water. Mix with a fork until dough just comes together.

Knead dough lightly, adding more water by the tablespoonful if needed, until no dry spots remain (dough will be slightly shaggy but moist). Form into a disk and wrap tightly in plastic. Chill until firm, at least 2 hours. Crust can be made 2 days ahead; keep chilled.

filling and assembly

Preheat oven to 375°. Season short ribs with kosher salt and pepper; toss with ½ cup flour on a rimmed baking sheet. Heat oil in a large heavy pot over medium-high heat. Working in batches, shake excess flour from ribs and cook, turning occasionally, until deeply browned, 8–10 minutes per batch. Using a slotted spoon, transfer to a large bowl.

Add onions to same pot and cook, stirring occasionally, until golden brown; season with kosher salt and pepper and, using a slotted spoon, transfer to a small bowl. Reduce heat to medium, add garlic to pot, and cook, stirring, until softened, about 2 minutes.

Add tomato paste and cook, stirring often, until slightly darkened in color, 5–8 minutes. Add wine, rosemary, and thyme sprigs, bring to a boil, and cook, scraping up browned bits, until liquid is reduced by half, 8–10 minutes. Add 6 cups water to pot and bring to a boil.

Return short ribs to pot; season with kosher salt and pepper. Reduce heat and simmer gently, uncovered, until short ribs are almost falling apart and liquid is thick enough to lightly coat a spoon, 2½–3 hours.

Add onions and chopped thyme to pot and stir to break up short ribs; season filling with kosher salt and pepper. Remove herb sprigs.

Roll out dough on a lightly floured surface to about ⅛" thick. Transfer filling to a shallow 2-qt. baking dish. Place over filling and trim, leaving overhang. Tuck edges under and crimp. Cut a few slits in crust. Brush with cream and sprinkle with sea salt. Alternatively, you can use 8 individual dishes.

Place dish on a rimmed baking sheet and bake pot pie until filling is bubbling and crust is golden brown, 50–60 minutes (35–40 minutes for smaller dishes). Let sit 5–10 minutes before serving.

Do Ahead: Filling can be made 2 days ahead. Let cool; cover and chill. Reheat gently before assembling pie.

Hello! My name is Bolo and I am a 4 year old Terrier Mix. I arrived at the Brandywine Valley SPCA when my family had to move and couldn't take me. I know they were very sad to bring me here but everyone says I have been very sweet and everyone has been taking great care of me. I have lived with 2 children, one who was special needs, and I am very friendly and affectionate with everyone. They say I behaved better than anyone in the house! I enjoy playing fetch and know sit, down and stay. There is nothing I love better than belly rubs and when you pet me I will immediately roll over for that rub! I am gentle, kind and loving- what more could you want? Please come meet me today and you will see why everyone has fallen head over heels for me! Pokémon problems persist

Besides feeling ignored by the City, residents voiced complaints about the trash and conduct of the gamers. Cigarette butts litter the sidewalks and burning cigarettes have been left on residents window sills. Of concern is the many playing the game while driving. Someone is going to get hurt. Police Chief Jamie Rogers said that 161 traffic tickets had been issued in the month of August. One Delaware Street resident remarked "you can sit on my door stoop and write that many before lunch." Rosemont House owner Keith Adams presented

Pokémon driver on W. 3rd Street

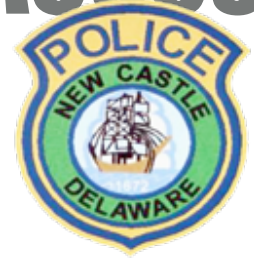

Council with a petition signed by 100+ residents and business owners asking for Council's action. West 5th Street resident Wendy Dewhurst read her letter to the WEEKLY in which she said "The New Castle I remember not so long ago was a beautiful, peaceful quiet place". She questioned if the influx of gamers would return as museum visitors or potential customers. Another resident up held the City Charter which requires Council to serve and protect the citizens and states that a permit is required for groups of 25 or more in public assembly (parades, dedications etc.) but not in this case. Chief Rogers again told everyone to call 911 and we will respond. He invited all to volunteer for the Volunteers In Police Services (VIPS), program. There is an application/ background check and approx. 8 hours of training. A VIP will be trained in basic first aid and CPR. All for free. Call 322-9800 and ask for VIPS info to learn more and sign up!

At press time Chief Rogers has received only one call and that person hasn't stopped by for the info pack.

Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the National Historic Preservation Act

Sept. 24th - 4pm
Historic Penn Farms
New Castle
3rd Annual
Harvest Dinner

Guests will enjoy the farm-to-table culinary creations of Chefs Dwain Kalup from Domaine Hudson, Andrew Feeley from Sodel Concepts and Taylor Payton from Eclipse Bistro, prepared by the students of The Crop Foundation. The farm-fresh menu will be paired with local beers, wine and a signature farm fresh cocktail.

Attendees will explore the farm on a guided tour and learn about life at Historic Penn Farm from Farmer Toby and the Delaware Greenways team. Other speakers include local farmer Jim Short, of Country Boy in Dover, DE. Country Boy will also be providing guests with a taste of his farm-raised Berkshire pig.

The event will feature music by Dave DeWhitt and DJ Lew The Mailman, exciting raffles and prizes, and an impressive array of silent auction items.

Class is in session and tickets are available now! Early bird tickets are available for $65 per person until September 4th, and are $75 after that date. The Crop Foundation will be offering a discounted group rate for parties 8 or more at $55 per person.

Delaware Greenways members $55
