Council Approves HNCA Grant Wayfinding Design Standards and Signage

In 2012, the Historic New Castle Alliance (HNCA) with community support and participation was awarded a Community Economic Development Grant from New Castle County for wayfinding that includes parking signs to minimize congestion, pedestrian way finding planning/signage, and professionally produced trails/attractions maps.

At this month's Council meeting, the City of New Castle passed a resolution to accept the design standards developed by Mitchell Associates and to confirm the value of wayfinding signage for visitors and residents that enhances and strengthens the City of New Castle's Historic Center identity. For several months, the HNCA has been working with the Planning Commission, Battery Park Committee and City to identify initial locations for the new signs. Signs will include maps developed by HNCA with assistance from ForeSite Associates and Delaware Greenways.

These maps can be viewed on ► www.historicnewcastle.com

The next phase is fabrication and installation of pedestrian wayfinding signs and parking directional signs in the city center and Battery Park with assistance from the City, MSC and Trustees.

CHEESE FRY

In this recipe, the fries are seasoned and baked to a zesty perfection, then topped with ranch dressing, cheese and crumbled bacon. Eat'm fast, because they've been known to disappear quickly. Great for a snack, an appetizer or a side to your favorite steakhouse-inspired meal.

INGREDIENTS

Fries - homemade or sliced/baked 4 russet

Dip approx 3 tbsp envelope of dry taco work too.

1 cup Ranch Dressing
1/2 cup shredded Colby-Jack cheese 2-3 slices cooked crumbled bacon

DIRECTIONS

Sprinkle fries with season salt (to taste) and bake accordingly. Once baked, sprinkle cheese and bacon evenly over the fries and return to the oven to melt. You can also use your broiler to really crisp them up. Once baked, sprinkle cheese and bacon evenly over the fries and return to the oven to melt. HAVE YOU TRIED IT?

GOATHAM SAUCE CO.

was started in 2009 by two burger connoisseurs on a perpetual quest for burger nirvana. We've tried it all, from the generic drive-thru burger to the cult classics to the haute cuisine creations more similar to a fine steak than a burger. One half of the duo, who shall remain nameless, once ate 11 cheeseburgers in one sitting. Impressive or revolting? Up to you to decide.

One thing we've learned after chowing down on countless burgers over the past few years is that the burger should be respected. We take issue with the fact that many people out there think a homemade burger is more of a ketchup-delivery vehicle than a standalone culinary masterpiece. That's why we set out to create a sauce that is designed to complement the burger's inherent perfection. Our Top Secret Burger Sauce was inspired by the custom-made burger sauces found at burger joints across the country. It's the perfect blend of sweet, sour, spicy and creamy that will make you forget those pricey-yet-delicious restaurant burgers you once craved.

gets one last hug.

It didn't take long last Sunday to remove the mighty elm that has stood guard of Battery Park for nearly a century.

The above photo shows its hollow center. This elm is 60 feet tall, is 72 inches in diameter when measured at 4.5 feet above the ground, but this yields an inaccurate portrayal of its size. The main trunk is significantly swollen as a reaction to internal stresses caused by decay.

Measured at a height of 9 feet, just above the swollen area, the diameter is 58 inches.

This tree has a long history of injuries. Lightning scars on the west side of the trunk and several large limbs indicate the tree was struck about 8 to 10 years ago. The location of this tree near the wharf, the road, and the pedestrian walkway means that this area received a lot of traffic over the years, possibly contributing to the various injuries. Above, the crane is lifting a limb that's the size of many neighbor trees.

"Stitching to Care"

Our volunteer 'Stitchers' have been meeting for three weeks now, and have produced some wonderful hats, booties, and blankets in support of the Bereavement Program at Christiana Hospital for stillborn babies.

Can you knit, sew or crochet? Please consider volunteering your skills so your hobby can meet a need and make a difference.

You can knit at home if you can't make the meetings.

We meet Thursday at 6 pm in Trader's Cove coffee shop.
