Officer Charles Thorn is finally honored

Betty Wagner and Joe Allione representing C.O.P.S. (Concerns of Police Survivors) unveil the plaque

It was October 22, 1926, that Officer Charles Thorn of New Castle Police Department was killed in a motorcycle accident as he patrolled the streets of New Castle. Until recently, Officer Thorn's service and sacrifice has been a lost chapter in the history. Officer Thorn has had the long overdue honor of having his name engraved on the walls of the National Law Enforcement Officers' Memorial as well as the Delaware Law Enforcement Memorial. Thanks to the efforts of 2 retired state troopers, Kevin McDerby and Ray Peden (right) who, with the City of New Castle, paid homage to an officer who gave all while protecting life and property within our city. The city dedicated a memorial to Officer Thorn last Thursday morning, held at 4th and Delaware Streets, the location where Charles Thorn lost his life 90 years ago. Many police officers from the City, State, NC County and the City of Wilmington, as well as City residents and guests lined a warm and sunny Delaware Street.

Patrolman Thorn was returning to the police station about 11 p.m. Oct. 22, 1926, on his motorcycle when he passed a vehicle he had been following on Delaware Street near Fourth Street and ran head-on into a vehicle traveling in the opposite direction, killing the officer instantly. The officer's funeral included his colleagues in the police community, along with Good Will Fire Company of New Castle – where the officer also served as a volunteer firefighter. It was the first time that the company's fire engine served as a hearse, transporting the fallen officer's body from his parent's Gray Street home, where the viewing was held, to St. Peter's Church on 5th Street.

Aunt Rosa's bread pudding

ingredients

(measurements are not critical, as long as bread isn't too soggy or too dry, it's fine)

one 1.5 lb loaf of stale white, or whole wheat bread • 1 to 2 tsp cinnamon • 1 ½ cup raisins • ½ to ¾ cup brown sugar • 1 egg • 2 to 3 tbsp sherry • ⅓ cup butter, cut into pieces, at room temperature • white sugar for sprinkling on top

now make it

Butter a 9" x 13" rimmed baking tray • Soak the bread with water and squeeze the excess water out then place in a large mixing bowl. Add the remaining ingredients to the bowl, except for the white sugar (to sprinkle). Stir well to mix all the ingredients together, until it's evenly combined.

- Spread the mixture onto the buttered tray and spread evenly; if yours is too dry, you probably didn't soak it enough. • Push down with a fork until the mixture is as even as possible.
- Bake in preheated 350° oven for about 25 to 30 minutes, or until it starts to turn golden brown (turn the tray around half way through baking).
- When cool, cut into slices or bars and serve, preferable with a piping hot cup of tea or coffee.

Hi, Caya here! I am a gorgeous green eyed tabby who is very sweet and a big cuddle bug! I like to lounge around and relax in your lap for hours on a lazy afternoon. Laying by the window is one of my favorite spots because I can observe my wonderful surroundings. I'd love to be the only pet in your home so we can spoil each other! I am spayed, microchipped and up to date on vaccinations, so come on over to meet me
