CUTTY'S Tomato Jam

- ❖ The fist-pumping tomato jam isn't the only reason that Cutty's BLTJ is a sterling sandwich. Composition, the skill of arranging the ingredients, is an underheralded art, but it has a real effect on how the flavors hit your palate.
- ❖ Makes one sandwich. You'll want two, at least.

ingredients

- ❖ 2 slices of white or good quality white or wheat bread, toasted
- ❖ Lemony mayo (mix 1 teaspoon of fresh lemon juice into ½ cup of Hellman's mayonnaise)
- ❖ 4 strips of crisp, crisp bacon
- ❖ Small handful of field greens or mesclun mix
- ❖ Cutty's tomato jam
- ❖ Directions
- ❖ Spread lemony mayo on the bottom slice of toast. (The extra lemon in the mayo balances the rich sweetness of the tomato jam).
- ❖ Add the greens and then the bacon strips.
- ❖ On the other slice of toast, spread a modest layer of tomato jam. The stuff is ridiculously delicious, but it's also powerful stuff. On top of the tomato jam, spread another layer of lemony mayo.
- ❖ Top the sandwich, serve with the tomato-jam side on top, and yell, "Tijuana!"

ingredients

- ❖ 1½ pounds Roma tomatoes, cored and chopped coarsely
- ❖ 2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
- ❖ 2 tablespoons brandy (optional)
- ❖ 1 teaspoon grated fresh ginger
- ❖ 1 scant cup granulated sugar
- ❖ ½ teaspoon ground cumin
- ❖ ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper
- ❖ ¼ teaspoon red chile flakes
- ❖ 1 teaspoon salt

→ Cutty's bacon, lettuce and tomato jam sandwich recipe

directions

- ❖ Combine all ingredients in a medium-sized heavy-bottom pot, preferably nonstick. ("This is the best use for a nonstick pan I've ever come across," Chuck says. "Well, this and Rice Krispies treats.") Cook over medium-high heat until bubbling.
- ❖ Reduce heat to low and gently simmer, stirring occasionally, until mixture is thick and syrupy, about 1 hour. Cool the jam; season with salt and pepper if necessary. Store in the fridge.

Satan's Whiskers

The Satan's Whiskers first shows up in the Savoy Cocktail Book circa 1930, and it appears in two variations: straight, when mixed with Grand Marier, and curled, when mixed with orange curaçao. Since both are no "official" declaration of correct one, so the recipe fashioned personal preference.

½ oz gin • ½ oz sweet
½ oz dry vermouth • ½ oz
2 tsp orange curaçao
(straight)

Shake well with ice and glass. Garnish with an orange twist.

This is a very classic cocktail, so I'm sure the gin and vermouth good, however, and the this less likely to spook blood orange juice in mine to can make long orange twists early in the day, curl them around a chopstick and leave them in a glass of ice water until it's time to use them. The ice water helps them keep their shape and it saves you time when you're manning the bar. This drink is also lower proof than many cocktails that contain a large portion of liquor, so this is a nice one to serve at parties before people are expected to hop in the car and drive home.

Every Sunday morning, 460 plus "Cobbles" receive their weekly dose of New Castle's comings and goings and other good and interesting stuff! Cobblestones is my "fun" project, a pay back to the community. There is no charge to community organizations for their listings.

Space for commercial/business ads require a donation of $50 to cover time and materials. That covers four random insertions.

Ads should be a moderate size. A jpg or PDF works the best. Let me know early in the week an approx. size with a final copy Thursday. If it's just a listing for "events", please send me copy as soon as possible.

Personally, I would like to thank everyone for your interest and participation in the growing Cobblestones family. Anything I can do to help, please let me know.

Willie's tale...

then

Someone abandoned him in the wharf area two years ago. Ron, Carol, Gary, Robert and Vivian of the 2nd & Delaware gang kept an eye on him and ultimately he lived in the Trustees Office (illicitly) for about 3 weeks. At the time I called him "Little Grey Lamb" and we would go out and let him run in the churchyard. Then wonderful Lois Clayton (mother of Trustee Tom) came by. Lois' beloved cat had recently passed away. It was love at first sight! Willie moved in with her on 4th Street, and then proudly relocated to The Helm with Lois.

330th Anniversary

was born October 14, 1644 in London England. He was the son of Admiral Sir William Penn, a well know friend of the Royals and influential in the court of Charles II and his brother, James, Duke of York.

William Penn lived a privileged life and was well educated and travelled. Although raised as an Anglican Penn went through a profound religion experience at age 22 and embraced the Quaker beliefs. His commitment to his religious beliefs led to persecution, frequent arrests and prison, loss of position and disownment by his family.

Because the Quakers were so severely persecuted in England, Penn petitioned Charles to grant him land in the new world and allow the Quakers to immigrate there and live according to their beliefs. In 1681, Charles II granted William Penn land which will become the Province of Pennsylvania. James, Duke of York will give Penn deeds and leases for what is now the State of Delaware. Penn called this land his Three Lower Counties of New Castle, Kent, and Sussex.

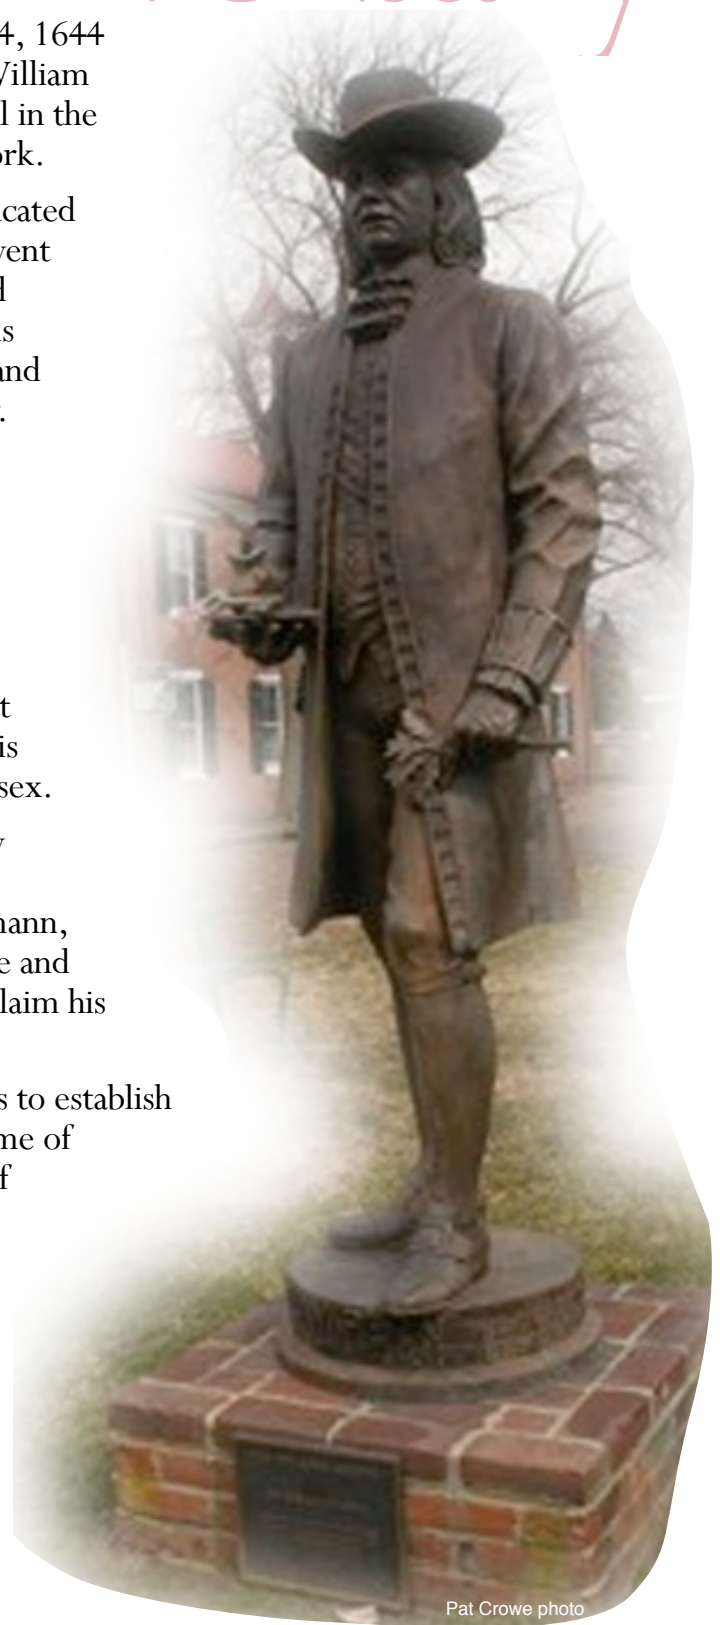

Penn sailed to the new world and landed first in New Castle on October 27, 1682. He came ashore and received the land from John Moll and Ephraim Hermann, the Duke's representatives. Penn spent the night here and then sailed the next day to Upland (Chester, PA) to claim his Pennsylvania province.

William Penn came back to New Castle several times to establish the courts, colonial assembly, and laws under his Frame of Government. In 1701, Penn allowed the Assembly of the Lower Counties to separate from the full Pennsylvania assembly, free to make their own laws but still part of the Pennsylvania province.

William Penn ruled as proprietor and Governor until his death in 1718. His sons took over and governed the Lower Counties until June 15, 1776, when here at the New Castle Court House, the Delaware Assembly voted to separate from Pennsylvania and Great Britain.

It is William Penn and his laws that have set the standard for our own US Constitution and Bill of Rights.

William Penn's Great Laws called for representative government, religious freedom, equal justice in courts, no death penalty except for murder and treason, prison reform, and equality of all individuals.
