

Didjano that the Teditor
has a BIG birthday this week?
Didjano that the Teditor
spends the whole week getting the Cobblestones ready for you?

As he tires away on his trusty Apple from his home office at the Port, he's giving the residents of New Castle and beyond his love for keeping people connected and together. Take the coming days to thank Ted by connecting and coming together around him, buy the good man a burger (rare, please) and tell him what the Cobble means to you. Better yet, tell him what he means to you. I'll take this time to say that my Dad, while lovingly bullheaded at times, is that rare breed of human that loves unconditionally and without delay. His humor, his camaraderie, and his candor are what makes y'all up north lucky to have him in your town. I treasure having him in my life, and I'm grateful he's a treasured institution in my hometown. Dad, may that be the best birthday present you could ever get.

Love,
Jay
and the citizens of New Castle, Delaware)

PIZZA CAKE

at market get....

2 cans Pillsbury™ refrigerated classic pizza crust ♦ 1 ½ cups pizza sauce ♦ 3 cups shredded mozzarella cheese (12 oz) ♦ 1 cup sliced pepperoni ♦ 1 tbsp butter

okay, now follow these steps...

- ▶ Heat oven to 400°F. Lightly spray large cookie sheet with cooking spray or drizzle with olive oil.
- ▶ Measure diameter of tall-sided ovenproof pan. (Pan used was 6-inch in diameter with 4-inch high side.) Unroll 1 can of dough onto work surface; press out into thin layer. Cut out 3 (6-inch) rounds; place on cookie sheet. Bake 8 minutes. Remove from cookie sheet to cooling rack; cool.
- ▶ Unroll remaining can of dough; cut 2 additional (6-inch) rounds from long edge of dough, leaving opposite side untouched. Place rounds on cooled cookie sheet. Bake 8 minutes. Remove from cookie sheet; cool.
- ▶ Meanwhile, line pan with cooking parchment paper so that ends of paper stick up and out of pan. Cut long strip of dough at least 1/2 inch wider than height of pan. Carefully drape long strip of dough around inside edge of pan to line, leaving 1/2 inch hanging over outside edge of pan and bottom of pan open. Pinch seam to seal.
- ▶ Carefully place 1 partially baked crust round in bottom of pan. Spread pizza sauce over crust; top with pepperoni slices and sprinkle with mozzarella cheese (when cheese melts, crust above will stick to it). Repeat to make 3 more layers. For top layer, place last crust over cheese; sprinkle with remaining cheese and arrange remaining pepperoni on top.
- ▶ Fold overhanging dough over top layer of pizza cake to make a raised crust edge..
- ▶ Bake 20 to 25 minutes or until dough around pizza cake is fully cooked. (To test, carefully pull up parchment paper to raise pizza cake out of pan.) Once completely baked, cool in pan 5 minutes. Remove pizza cake from pan; brush crust with butter. Use sharp knife to cut slices like you would a cake.

the kangaroo

began appearing on menus sometime in the '50s during the height of the Cold War, when vodka as a spirit was a relative newcomer to American bars. Customers began requesting vodka to replace the gin in a Martini and the Kangaroo was born, or as most people will recognize it, the Vodka Martini.

It's an easy mix...

1 ½ oz vodka

¾ oz dry vermouth

Garnish with a lemon Twist

Combine ingredients in a mixing glass and fill with ice. Stir well for 20 seconds and strain into a chilled glass. Garnish with a lemon twist.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

As part of Municipal Services maintenance program, the Electric Department is sandblasting the lamp posts and repainting.

The posts had started to fade and rust in areas and now they have been restored to look new.

They will have to be touched up periodically but no sandblasting again for another 20 years.

There was no new wiring needed and in most cases the glass is fine
