TIME FOR STREET CAMERAS?

scene of the crime

The recent thefts from businesses and residents who do their best to beautify our town call for a solution. More police presence and the use of street cameras are comments heard on the street.

The Viols' theft of 3 pots of newly planted ilex on Delaware Street and Moz'art Gallery's wicker chairs are the latest. Residents of W. 4th Street (and other areas) report similar incidences of missing plants, planters, even a bug zapper!

Because Life's Too Short to Worry About Bad Breath

a garlic lovers chicken

As featured in Bon Appétit

This recipe uses the Charlie's Angels trifecta of olive oil, heat, and time to produce a garlic situation that's more chill Aquarian than raging Scorpio, plus some fall-off-the-bone tender chicken to boot.

on the counter

- 4 chicken legs (thigh and drumstick; about 2½ lb. total) • Kosher salt
- 4 heads of garlic, halved crosswise • 1 lemon, thinly sliced into rounds, seeds removed • 1 red chile (such as Fresno), quartered lengthwise, seeds removed if desired • 3 bay leaves or 5 sprigs thyme • Freshly ground black pepper • ½ cup extra-virgin olive oil • Country-style bread, toasted (for serving)

the prep

Make oven happy at 325°.

Place chicken in an 13x9" baking dish and season generously all over with salt. Add garlic, lemon, chile, bay leaves, and a few grinds of pepper. Pour in oil and toss everything to coat. Turn garlic heads cut side down so they are in contact with the baking dish (this will help them brown).

Roast chicken, rotating pan once, until meat is almost falling off the bone, 75-90 minutes. Let chicken cool in pan 10 minutes, then serve with bread. now that was easy!

Add food coloring until desired black color is achieved.

FALL LEAF PICK UP

The City does not have set dates for leaf pick-up, we take our cue from Mother Nature; when the leaves start to fall, rake them to the curb for pick up. Rake ONLY leaves to the curb, no sticks or other debris may be in leaf piles, as this may damage the machinery.

Check the City website for dates at
