October 15, 2017

On Tuesday, Mayor Gambacorta read two proclamations. First, proclaiming November 6, 2017 a Color the World Orange Day in New Castle, to help promote awareness of Reflex Sympathetic Dystrophy, also known as Complex Regional Pain Syndrome. Second Proclamation Recognizing Saturday, November 25, 2017 as Small Business Saturday in the City of New Castle.

Trying to pass a resolution approving annual license fees ($250) for telecommunications facilities proved not an easy task. Councilmember John DiMondi questioned the number of antennas on one tower. Look for this tabled resolution to resurface in a future City Council meeting.

Next Council tried to afix an additional fee ($20) to pick up garbage and refuse from residential and commercial properties having an average pickup exceeding four, thirty-five-gallon containers for each pickup. Certain users of the City of New Castle's trash disposal services consistently generate inordinately large amounts of garbage and refuse in excess of the four, thirty-five-gallon container per pickup. After much discussion the new fee passed by Council is $100 per month.

NC Police Chief Rogers reported there had been two drug overdose deaths so far this month. Look to The Weekly for full City Council details.

Last year we had a fantastic evening at the church filled with games, costumes, pizza, treats, and of course - pumpkins! This year we will be having a children & families party for the "Gift of Love program." Please feel free to bring any items that can go in the "ditty boxes" for Wilmington Seamen's Center (chapstick, lotion, toothpaste, etc.) Come on out, dress up and have a fun night! If you have any neighbors or friends that would be interested in going - the more the merrier! Bring a treat to share! We will have pizza, punch, and more goodies! We hope to see youthere! Please RSVP 302-328-3279 or email office@newcastlepreschurch.org.

COWBOY BUTTER

an herb dipping sauce with a kick, people went nuts. Your tastebuds will rejoice and this will become a must on your table. Butter makes everything (or like 99.9% of things) better. This is not compound butter. It's way easier. You don't need to wait for butter to soften only to roll it into a log and chill it again. Here, you're melting butter, throwing a bunch of herbs and awesomeness in, and calling it a day.

GAHTER UP

- 1 c. butter, melted • Juice of 1/2 a lemon • 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 small shallot, minced • 2 tbsp. Dijon mustard • 1 tbsp. prepared horseradish • Pinch of cayenne pepper • 1/4 tsp. Paprika
- 2 tbsp. Freshly Chopped Parsley • 1 tbsp. freshly chopped chives
- 2 tsp. minced thyme • kosher salt • Freshly ground black pepper

EASY FIXN'

- In a small bowl, combine butter, lemon juice, garlic, shallot, mustard, horseradish, cayenne, and paprika. Whisk to combine.
- Stir in parsley, chives and thyme and season with salt and pepper.
- Serve with grilled meats, like steak or chicken, for dipping. It also tastes delish with cornbread!

Mandarin Grün Sparkler

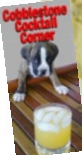

on the bar

- ▶ 1.25 oz your fav gin
- ▶ .75 ounce mandarin syrup*
- ▶ .75 ounce fresh lemon juice
- ▶ 6-8 leaves of basil
- ▶ Dry sparkling wine

for the bartender

1. Add gin, mandarin syrup, lemon juice, and basil into a cocktail shaker.
2. Muddle basil.
3. Add ice, shake for 15 seconds.
4. Pour into a glass over ice.
5. Top off with dry sparkling wine.
6. Garnish with basil, mandarin orange, and lemon.

I write this morning to commend New Castle on it's effort at branding. We have just completed the exercise here but I am sorry to report it did not go well.

You all, however, seem to be on a much more energetic and appropriate path as you include economic developers, small businesses, residents, government and tourism specialists, just to mention a few.

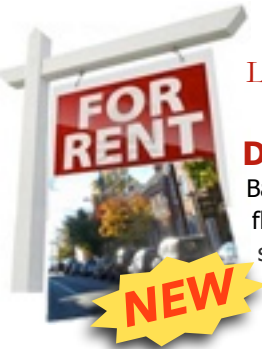

I can but caution the "branders":

There is much more to it than just creating a logo and a catch phrase. And frankly, I am amazed you are seeking even more people to come and crowd your streets and pubs and sidewalks. Every time we have been to Jessop's the joint has been packed! And, it should go without saying, there really isn't much in the way of overnight accommodations.

Here in New Bern, within four square blocks in the historic district, we have over a dozen restaurants and bars and 17 hotels and bed and breakfasts, all within walking distance (even for old people) of the confluence of two rivers. That adds up to about 400 beds and barely enough places to park the appropriate number of vehicles. Parking, for us, is a HUGE issue. Our government is toying with the idea of a parking garage and parking meters to fund its construction...an idea which gets NO resident support. Merchants say it is needed, shoppers disagree. They are quite content driving around the block one or two times in order to find a parking place.

As an occasional visitor I would urge caution. You have a beautiful, alive and vibrant historic town. One would be hard-pressed to make it better than what it has become since the first brick was cast so many years ago.

Regards,
J. Humphreys New Bern, NC

PLU codes

You know those little stickers on fruits and veggies? They're called price look-up (PLU) codes and they contain numbers that cashiers use to ring you up.

But you can also use them to make sure you're getting what you paid for. Here's what to look for:

- A five-digit number that starts with a 9 means the item is organic.
- A four-digit code beginning with a 3 or a 4 means the produce is probably conventionally grown. For example, regular small lemons sold in the U.S. are labeled 4033, large are 4053; small organic lemons are coded 94033, large are 94053.
- A five-digit code that starts with an 8 means the item is genetically modified (it has genes from other organisms). You won't see many of those because only genetically modified versions of corn, soybeans, canola, cotton, papaya, and squash are now widely sold. And because PLU codes aren't mandatory, companies can label those items as conventional. The problem is that although an estimated 60 to 70 percent of food items sold, including packaged goods, have genetically modified ingredients, little is known about the long-term effects of consuming them, and concerns have been raised about an increase in allergies and other health issues.
- For more info, visit the Non-GMO Shopping Guide website.

Trash, Yard Waste & Recycle Pick-Up will begin at 7am

FALL LEAF PICK UP

The City does not have set dates for leaf pick-up, we take our cue from Mother Nature; when the leaves start to fall, rake them to the curb for pick up. Rake ONLY leaves to the curb, no sticks or other debris may be in leaf piles, as this may damage the machinery.

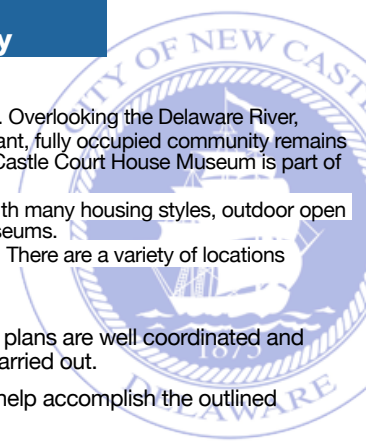

City of New Castle Delaware
Marketing and Development Director/Contract Opportunity

New Castle, Delaware

The City of New Castle, Delaware is located just 10 minutes south of downtown Wilmington with easy access from I-95 and I-295. Overlooking the Delaware River, Historic New Castle is the oldest continuously occupied town in the Delaware Valley. And, thanks to preservation efforts, this vibrant, fully occupied community remains one of the most important Colonial/Federal villages in America in the number and authenticity of its historic structures. The New Castle Court House Museum is part of the First State National Historical Park. Much of downtown New Castle is part a National Historic Landmark District.

New Castle is great place to live, work and play. New Castle is known for its thriving historic downtown, diverse neighborhoods with many housing styles, outdoor open spaces and recreation including Battery Park, multiple playgrounds, trails, nature areas, tennis courts, sailing club, library and museums.

We are a business-friendly City with expedited permitting, community policing and competitive, reliable electric and water service. There are a variety of locations including historic downtown, three business parks, shopping centers and individual sites.

Marketing and Development Director/Contract

The City of New Castle seeks an organized, dynamic, energetic, commercial revitalization professional or firm that can help market and develop business within our City. The candidate will work independently with downtown and local business and property owners, local government officials, and nonprofit agencies and organizations to promote Historic New Castle and surrounding areas as a vibrant and thriving city and to preserve the historic nature of the downtown area as a unique and inviting place to visit, work and live. Primary duties and responsibilities include fundraising, marketing, networking, and cultivation of positive working relationships; budgeting and planning. The ideal candidate or firm(s) will be an enthusiastic supporter of local businesses, have an understanding of the distinctive history and character of New Castle and be unafraid to reach out to and communicate regularly with business and property owners. In addition, the right candidate will be able to work in concert with local officials and organizations on convergent projects and efforts, and will be able to think progressively about future direction to promote new businesses and economic growth/ investment in the City, while providing a quality of life that makes citizens and others want to live here.

Specific responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Developing partnerships and strong working relationships with merchants, business owners, property owners, town officials, regional leaders, and other related groups to effectively implement City initiatives and serving as a conduit for resources and programs likely to benefit them.
- Developing a plan to identify business opportunities for entrepreneurs to encourage additional businesses to locate here.
- Promoting a vibrant business climate and employment opportunities for residents.
- Designing and implementing an effective communications and marketing plan with strategies to position the City as a good place to live, work and play.
- Creating an environment for downtown business investment based on the community-driven Main Street approach developed by the National Trust for Historic Preservation and other proven strategies by working with local groups such as the Historic New Castle Main Street Affiliate and Downtown Delaware.
- Representing the City of New Castle with New Castle County and state economic development groups and organizations such as the New Castle County Chamber of Commerce and the Delaware Division of Small Business, Development and Tourism.
- Coordinating with tourism agencies such as the Greater Wilmington Convention and Visitors Bureau, National Park Service, New Castle Historical Society, Delaware Historical Society, and State Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs

- Ensuring that activities and work plans are well coordinated and communicated, and effectively carried out.
- Grant writing and fundraising to help accomplish the outlined objectives-

Qualifications & Experience

- A bachelor's degree and minimum of three (3) years related experience in one or more of the following areas: economic development, planning, historic preservation, retail and marketing. A master's degree in a related field or may be substituted for one (1) year of experience
- Excellent organizational, budgeting and time management skills as well as ability to work independently
- Excellent verbal and written communication and interpersonal communication skills
- Public relations and social media skills with basic web update capabilities
- Proficiency in word processing, spreadsheets, and database skills
- A good understanding of issues and political complexities confronting business owners, property owners, public agencies and community organizations in historic central business districts
- Experience with economic development projects, historic tax credits, and/or mixed-use development
- Ability to handle light to medium physical demands

Compensation: $28,000 - $34,000 annual part-time salary or contract based on experience, qualifications and/or work scope proposal.

Work Schedule – This is a part time position of approximately 25 hours a week. Hours may include nights and weekends as necessary for meetings and events, with the ability for flex and comp time. Contractual proposals by qualified firms will also be considered.

Please submit a resume, cover letter, and three (3) references or a proposal to Bill Barthel, City Administrator, at bbarthel@newcastlecity.com with the subject line to read: Marketing and Development Director/Contract.

Optionally, materials may also be sent by mail to: Marketing and Development Contract Search, Attention: City Administrator Bill Barthel, 220 Delaware Street, New Castle, DE 19720

Questions about the position should be in writing and submitted electronically to Bill Barthel at 220 Delaware Street New Castle, DE 19720 or bbarthel@newcastlecity.com

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled or contract established. AA/EEO

The City of New Castle Council is looking for volunteers to serve on a temporary task force to study the possible code of conduct and/or code of ethics for elected and non-union City employees as well as persons who serve on boards and commissions. It's a great way for people all throughout the City to get involved in the question of what standards the city expects from its officials and employees.

If you are interested in serving on this task force, contact Councilperson Michael Quaranta through City Hall at 302-322-9804 or email him at mquaranta@newcastlecity.com .
