Historic Area Review committee

A rather sparse group of citizens greeted Leila Hamroun, Historic Area Commission architect, at the introduction of the new Historic Area Review Committee last Wednesday evening. She introduced the new HARC members, Doug Lovett, Jim Meek, Mike Connolly and Joe Day.

The committee is asking for feedback from those who have had dealings with HAC and how their experience fared. Also, and what could be done to make the process easier and more inclusive yet still maintain the integrity of the town.

Revisions to the guidelines written 24 years ago will address a revision of acceptable materials and where they may be used. (Street view, alley, backside and behind fences, for example).

Contractors need to be made aware of the standards and real estate agents should be provided with informational pamphlets to give to prospective buyers. - see HARC on page 7

City Council, last Tuesday evening, after a public hearing and a second reading, voted on Ordinance 499* "FEMA Floodplain Ordinance" that revises Chapter 130 of the City Code. In short, to be in accordance with Federal Guidelines as are other communities, New Castle has adopted the newly redrawn floodplain. These new guidelines are effective on Feb. 4, 2015. If you don't have flood insurance, now is the time to get it. What may cost $400-$500 per year now becomes $2500+ after the regulations become effective. It may take 60 days to obtain the insurance, so the time to act is now. The new FEMA maps are available at the Trolley Barn, 900 Wilmington Road, for your review and will be online soon. Jeff Bergstrom, City Building Official stands ready to assist residents with concerns.

*An Ordinance by the City Council of the City of New Castle amending the New Castle City Code of Ordinances to repeal Chapter 130 and to adopt a new Chapter 130; to adopt flood hazard maps, to designate a floodplain administrator, to adopt administrative procedures, and to adopt criteria for development in flood hazard areas, and for other purposes; to provide for applicability; repealer; and an effective date. ▶ Ordinance No. 499

Crazy Cake is the easiest chocolate cake recipe you will ever find. Even better, it's a deliciously moist cake that can be made without using eggs, milk, butter, or bowls. Yes, that's right, you don't need to use bowls! You can just mix the batter in the same pan in which you bake the cake. You probably have all the ingredients you need in your kitchen right now - just mix them together as directed, pop the cake in the oven, and it will be ready in less than an hour. You will go crazy for this simple chocolate cake recipe

No Eggs, Milk, Butter or Bowls

Ingredients

- 1 1/2 cups flour (no funny stuff here)
- 3 tbsp cocoa (unsweetened)
- 1 cup sugar (here either)
- 1 tsp baking soda
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 1 tsp white vinegar
- 1 tsp pure vanilla extract
- 5 tbsp vegetable oil
- 1 cup water

Directions

Preheat oven to 350°

Mix first 5 dry ingredients in a greased 8" square baking pan. Make 3 depressions in dry ingredients - two small, one larger.

Pour vinegar in one depression, vanilla in the other and the vegetable oil in third larger depression. Pour water over all. Mix well until smooth.

Bake on middle rack of oven for 35 minutes. Check with toothpick to make sure it comes out clean. Cool. Top with your favorite frosting. Enjoy!

Note: Oven cooking times may vary, be sure to check your cake to make sure you do not over do it.

Contractor knowledge was brought to the floor by Steve Pedrick, a local contractor, whose eye to historical accuracy is his benchmark. He noted that the house recently built at 4th & South Street, while having cedar siding, wasn't back primed and installed and painted during the winter months.

Some thoughts offered were; having smaller, less expensive projects; that can be approved online rather than waiting for a monthly meeting which could result in multiple appearances to gain approval.

Some agreed the new materials that weren't available in 1990 may very well be acceptable today. The committee was asked to be very careful before tweaking materials. "Don't cheapen our town with with modern materials", Dorsey Fisk stated, warning that property values could be affected.

"Not all residents are 'history buffs' but those New Castle for the community it is", was the feeling expressed by 3rd Street resident Janet Wurtzel. Her home, she told the committee, isn't historic and was probably built as a workers home around 1900. However she would like to know the history of the house. She suggested that between the Library and the NCHS a program could be developed to "Discover Your Houses Roots".

Suggestions and comments are welcome by the committee and can be dropped off at the City Admin. Building or emailed to mdelaney113@newcastlecity.org

NOT Close Encounters

A Penn Acres reader asks...

Why does a school district who was begging for money go out and buy million candle power lights so they can play on Friday nights at the expense of taxpayers?
