New Light shed on last week's night game!

The concern about lights for last weekend's Colonials game that illuminated many a neighbor, as well as the gridiron, has been cleared up. A member of the Cobblestone family attended the game and reported to me, "Nearby Tri-County Supply donated portable lights and generators for field. Goodwill donated truck lights for parking areas. So, there has been no school district investment in lights, to date, as questioned by the reader and it was only for the one game".

PINK OUT a huge success!

The first ever night game at Bill Cole Stadium resulted in a victory for our now 7-0 Colonials! Thanks to Concord for assisting us in our endeavor to attempt a night game! We painted the house pink in our community service project for cancer awareness!

Thanks to all the folks who made this night possible! We salute you! Go Penn!

BACON CHEESE POTATO

definitely more than a side dish...these potatoes are a meal... pure ecstasy.

Ingredients

- 2 lbs potatoes (unpeeled, washed and cut into chunks)
- 1/2 cup ranch dressing (bottled, not packet)
- 1/4 cup shredded cheddar cheese, plus more for topping
- 1/4 cup crumbled, cooked bacon - don't even think jar or package
- 1 tablespoon dried dill weed
- 3 scallions, washed and chopped
- Salt • Pepper • Non-stick cooking spray

Directions

- ◆ Happy oven is 350°
- ◆ Combine (in a large bowl) the ranch dressing, dill, cheese and bacon. Add in the potatoes. Sprinkle in a generous pinch of salt and pepper. Toss to coat potatoes.
- ◆ Spoon into a greased 9 x 13 baking dish. Cover with foil.
- ◆ Bake for 60 minutes. Stir gently halfway through to get the bottom potatoes rotated so they don't become burnt and to ensure that the middle and top potatoes get a chance to brown.
- ◆ Remove foil. Raise oven temperature to 400 degrees. Gently stir again, as necessary.
- ◆ Bake for an additional 15 minutes, then sprinkle on a little more cheese, if desired. Bake a few more minutes or until everything is gooey, browned and bubbly on top.
- ◆ Serve with scallions sprinkled on top for garnish.

CROP Hunger Walk was successfully held on Sunday, Oct. 12th. It is known as the oldest and largest faith based walk in the USA for a reason. The rains disappeared on Sunday, but persisted on both Saturday and Monday. Somebody was manning the switch. They have so far received over $700 of support from several businesses, and hope the people of New Castle will support them vigorously.

They are Ben Halko and Sons Inc., Dr. James Forshey, Dr. Soma Padmalingham, Porto-Fino Pizza and Restaurant, Reynold's Window and Screen Repair, Ron's Tree Service, Southern Corrosion Inc, and The Dentists at Brinton Lake. The WSFS Bank fielded a team of walkers as well. And, so far, the Internet giving by those who have registered as on-line walkers has achieved a deposit of almost $ 2,5000. If there are those who still want to donate can do so at <http://www.crophungerwalk.org/newcastlede>. You can also donate to any of the walkers who have web pages, if they type in the name of the walker. Let's pass last year's total of nearly $15,000.
