Two Lafayette authorities

Julien Icher, a young man from Carcassonne, France, spent a morning last week exploring Delaware's French history with W3R's Kim Burdick who lives at the Hale Byrnes House on old Route 7, where Lafayette turned 20 on September 6, 1777.

Icher, age 25, is the founder of The Lafayette Trail project, a Franco-American endeavor mapping Lafayette's farewell tour across 24 states from 1824 to 1825. So far, he's put more than 9,000 miles on his car in the past four months as he retraces Lafayette's footsteps. "My primary point is to accurately see these places Lafayette went. It will be my mission to track them down," Icher said. "This is a token of friendship between France and America." see page 5

The Lafayette visit

One of the highlights of Julien's visit to New Castle was an opportunity to meet our own Bob Sigmund, who happily showed his visitor his collection of Lafayette memorabilia. Listening to these two Lafayette aficionados was a remarkable learning experience that highlighted the importance of the Franco-American friendship that continues as America approaches the 250th anniversary of the American Revolution.

Julien Icher holds a Masters degree from the Ecole Normale Supérieure de Lyon, France and a bachelor's degree with double majors in history and geography as well as two master's degrees in geography and geographic information systems (GIS). He is hoping to use what he has learned towards a PhD dissertation, and the establishment of a Lafayette Trail.

He has been a member of the American Friends of Lafayette for the last two years. Julien has a passion for U.S. History, especially periods relating to French-US friendship and we are pleased to note that the Consul General of France in Boston has actively encouraged Julien to continue these endeavours. For more on this proposed trail, please see Julien's website:

Justin sends a message that Jessop's Tavern & Colonial Restaurant is now open with new bar features! Full menu will be available starting Monday, Nov 5th.

I don't think we, as residents, have any say in what either the Council or the Trustees want to do. Obviously, they, as those we voted on to represent us, don't give a rat's ass about what we as citizens want...as is evidenced by the parking lot debacle. I kind of give up on all them, actually, which is sad. I truly love this town and certainly embrace change but this ridiculous.

Victorian Christmas

Attention all volunteers who participated in the 2017, or would like to be part of the 2018, New Castle Historical Society's Victorian Christmas.

Clothing distribution will be different this year. After the clothing is given out, it does not need to be returned. It is yours to keep! Of course, if you take items, you should be a participant in our Victorian Christmas. Distribution will be in the upper room of the Arsenal on both:

Wednesday, November 7

6:00 - 7:00 open to everyone

Come early for the best selection. Some clothing that was available in the past will not be given out because it belongs to an individual. Hope to see you on one of those dates. Thank you for helping to make it a very Merry Victorian Christmas!
