Thanks to the people of New Castle, Area Churches, and Businesses

On October 13th, we had the most successful NC CROP Walk in our 29 years. The final count for about 130 walkers, who spent just a few short hours, was $14,932. 25% of this will go to The Emanuel Dining Room in Wilmington, and the Food Bank of Delaware in Newark. The rest goes to needy places all over the USA and the World. Many thanks to those who walked from Asbury Methodist, NCU Methodist, NC Presbyterian, Rivercross Fellowship, Summit Bridge Evangelical, Corporate Sponsors, Swanwyck Garden Club, WSFS, and Public Walk-ins. Included in the totals was $2,390 given on line through the Internet. Everyone (including the dogs) had a fun time, and by the day of our New Castle Walk, more than 75,000 people had participated in CROP Hunger Walks across 46 states in the USA. We hope that, if you did not make it this year, you will be able to either walk, or sponsor some who does walk, next year. Thanks again to New Castle for your help!

Have you ever wondered how and where the colonial holiday swags and wreaths are made that adorn the doors and windows of the public buildings and shops around our town?

Please join us at the Wreath Workshop sponsored by the Arasapha Garden Club.

We are making wreaths and swags on Wed., Dec. 4th from 9:30am to 7pm. We need willing hands to help decorate the nearly 100 wreaths and swags that contribute to the holiday atmosphere and the Spirit of Christmas in New Castle.

Instructions will be given on site and old-timers will be available to work with you. Not artistic? We have jobs for everyone. Many hands are needed for this project.

This year our funding for his project was cut drastically by the City. The Trustees have funded this workshop with Arasapha providing the labor and materials. Donations to help offset the cost of the workshop may be sent to Arasapha Garden Club, PO Box 185, New Castle, DE 19720 or you may contribute at the workshop on the 4th of Dec.

Have a yearning to fashion

a wreath for your own home from 5pm to 7pm materials and instruction is available. Call 302-328-3739 to reserve your spot. Everything you will need to fashion your wreath will be on site. There is a very limited supply of wreaths and you must reserve your wreath.

Materials and wreath fee: $35 for each wreath.

Mash good-quality tuna (canned in olive oil) with some pitted black oil-cured olives and drained capers. Spread it into a scooped-out roll with lettuce, tomatoes, raw or steamed green beans, and a squeeze of lemon. Sliced hard-boiled egg is good in here, too. Turkey maybe? - Teditor

Repeatedly Proven Portside

The Facts of Knife

Fathers, when you teach your son
The things young men should know,
There's just one vital lesson
That I hope you won't forgo.
It's something he can't learn in school,
Or pick up off the street,
And yet – without this skill
His education's incomplete.
Oh, you must teach your offspring how to
Carve a Turkey,
Yes, teach him how to wield that fork & knife, for if you teach your offspring how to
Carve a Turkey,
He'll thank you each Thanksgiving of his life.
If he reaches manhood
And hasn't got the knack,
His many other assets
Will not make up for the lack;
He may be rich and famous,
And leader of all men,
But he just won't cut the mustard,
If can't slice tom or hen.
Oh, you must teach your offspring how to
Carve a turkey,
and you'll have something to be thankful for.
Since is you teach your offspring how to
Carve a turkey,
Then you won't have to do it anymore.

Dry Riesling for your Thanksgiving

Wine Spectator has designated Ravines 2011 Dry Riesling as a "Smart Buy" in their Buying Guide last December. The 2011 Dry Riesling is a unique and elegant expression of the brilliant Finger Lakes terroir. The bouquet of this wine is delicate with intricate aromas of white flowers, mingled with pear, apple, and citrus notes, followed by a lingering mineral finish and vibrant acidity. A very reasonably priced bottle for a wine of this stature, it is most certainly a smart buy. Another Riesling that would be smart to add to your personal cellar is our single vineyard, 2009 Argetsinger Vineyard Dry Riesling, which received a 90 point score in the same issue.

COBBLE WISH

May your stuffing be tasty
May your turkey plump,
May your potatoes
and gravy

Have nary a lump.
May your yams be delicious
And your pies take the prize,
And may your Thanksgiving dinner
Stay off your thighs!
