creating custom cookies

An original member of the Cobblestones family and a multitasking mom a three-year-old, Mary Beth Plaisted finds the time to bake and fill orders for themed custom cookie orders.

She has been baking cut out cookies for several years and they have been a favorite among her close family and friends. They are all homemade and decorated by hand for the perfect dessert, gift or favor.

After several friends urged her to start selling her creations, she put her reservations aside and began branching out. Flavors include vanilla, chocolate, lemon, almond, pumpkin and peppermint. They can be made with many different colors and designs to fit any occasion. Bridal/baby showers, baptisms, family/class reunions and sports parties! (Super Bowl)? You name it!

Please feel free to contact Mary Beth for more ideas, information and pricing. ► mibble16@gmail.com

JOHNNY CAKES

These fluffy-fried, golden-sweet, semi-flattened spheres of pure goodness are the staple snack food of Caribbean.

In fact, if you should ever come across a restaurant there that doesn't serve Johnny Cakes, you best make a bee-line for the door. Seriously, a island eatery without Johnny Cakes is like a ballpark without hotdogs, a burger joint without fries!

So, what's so great about 'em? Johnny Cakes are sweet, filling and perfectly fine enjoyed on their own. Grab them when they were warm, making a small incision, and slipping a slice of cheddar or BBQ chicken, or any number of other favorites, and you have heaven on a plate.

all you need is..

1 ½ cup self-rising flour • ½ tsp. salt • Mix ¼ cup milk and ¼ cup water together • 1 ½ cups vegetable oil • 1½ tsp baking powder

kickm' up a notch with

1 tbsp sugar • 1 tsp ground cinnamon ¼ cup fine cornmeal increase water as needed

Combine dry ingredients in a large bowl. Slowly add liquid while mixing with a spoon. When all the liquid is absorbed put aside spoon and knead dough. Dough should be soft but dry and not stick to your hands. If dough is sticky, add flour 1 tablespoon at a time until dough is soft and dry. If flour is not fully absorbed add water 1 tsp at a time and mix. Break dough into 3 pieces and roll into long strips on a cutting board.

Heat oil in a skillet over medium heat. Cut strips into small pieces. Drop pieces in hot oil and let Johnny Cakes fry until they are golden in color, about 6 minutes. Use slotted spoon to remove Johnny Cakes from oil drain on paper towel before serving.

Serve warm. Johnny Cakes are not happy leftovers.

- ✓ 2 tbsp Dried orange peel

doings

Combine all ingredients except the simple syrup in a lidded glass jar. Cover, and let sit for four to five days, shaking the jar daily. After five days, strain all of the solids in the jar and discard. Add the simple syrup and shake to combine (feel free to add more or less simple syrup depending on how sweet you want it). Store the liqueur in a sealable large bottle, or jar to serve at home or in multiple smaller bottles with festive labels to give as gifts.

Recognizing NEW CASTLE

AP Travel Editor Beth Harpaz recently wrote

5 free things in and around Wilmington, Delaware. Her story was picked up by several newspapers. She wrote...

"A replica of the Swedish ship that brought Delaware's first colonists can be found in Wilmington at Fort Christina Park, with Old Swedes Church, dating to the 1690s, nearby. But the best place to soak up colonial history is Old New Castle, a 10-minute drive away, which offers a veritable who's who of colonial history. Peter Stuyvesant landed here in 1655 and took the colony over from the Swedes in the name of the Dutch. Later the colony fell under English rule, and Englishman William Penn first set foot in the New World here in 1682 (later founding Pennsylvania). The Marquis de Lafayette dropped by Old New Castle to officiate at a wedding in 1824.

Notable sites include the riverfront Battery Park; Immanuel Episcopal Church on the Green, which dates to the early 1700s; New Castle Court House, Delaware's first court and capital; and the Read House and gardens. Various house tours and museums charge fees, but cobblestone streets, shops and tidy brick homes are so evocative of centuries past that just walking around is a lot of fun".

It's this Friday!

The thirteen years of Prohibition were a dark time for the United States, as the criminalization of alcohol led not only to a rise in civil delinquency and organized crime, but also to the loss of customs associated with the production, preparation, and consumption of alcohol. We celebrate Repeal Day because December 5th marks a return to the rich traditions of craft fermentation and distillation, the legitimacy of the American bartender as a contributor to the culinary arts, and the responsible enjoyment of alcohol as a sacred social custom.

It's the perfect time of year.

Conveniently located halfway between Thanksgiving and Christmas – at a time when most Americans are probably not spending time with family – Repeal Day® presents a wonderful occasion to get together with friends and pay tribute to our constitutional rights.

Tis the season for... wreath-making and more

All events are free and open to the public.

The Gathering of the Greens Monday, December 1

Join this mini-outing to several locations to cut and collect greens like holly, magnolia and unusual evergreens that are used to adorn and enhance the holiday wreaths for town. Bring your clippers (and your friends)! Rain date is Tuesday, December 2. If you would like to participate, contact Kathy Tidball at 302.328.2532 for details.

Wreath Workshop Wednesday, December 3 9:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m. Thursday, December 4 9:00 a.m. - Noon

(or when wreaths are completed)

Christian Education Bldg., New Castle Presbyterian Church

Join us for the always-popular Wreath Workshop! Wreaths of fresh evergreens are decorated using dried flowers, fresh fruits, and additional greens. The finished wreaths are then placed around town. Nearly 100 wreaths are created during the two-day workshop. Lunch and refreshments are provided on Wednesday; we will need help with clean up on Thursday. Don't forget your clippers!
