According to historical records

the first celebration of Delaware Day featured speeches by local historians and school choirs singing "Our Delaware." Milford High School students presented a dramatization of the ratification. Today, unless you're in the fourth Delaware school, you're probably not involved in any official celebration.

Perhaps today, we should take a break and recognize how unique and great we really are in Delaware.

We have an enormous amount of historical and artistic riches.

When people ask why every company that is worth anything incorporates here, you can say "Chancery Court," and they'll nod because they don't want to admit they have no clue what that is. We have scrapple and Dogfish Head beer.

Most importantly, we are a small and intimate state, and we benefit from the relationships and flexibility this allows. This is as true today as it was in 1787.

Pennsylvania's Constitutional Convention started nearly 13 days before Delaware's, but that state didn't ratify the Constitution until five days after we had signed on.

What took us five days took Pennsylvania 18.

So, today, unfurl your Delaware flag, cook some scrapple, visit Winterthur or drink a local craft brew(ski), and let's chalk up one more year of being first.

Delaware Day activities on page 5

You KNOW DELAWARE WHEN...

- You know where, what and when the Hummers Parade is held.
- "Vacation" means going to Rehoboth or Cape Henlopen.
- You've know the best subs come from Capriotti's.
- You measure distance in minutes.
- You used to play in the wooder in the crick, and caught fraugs.
- You know NewERK is in New Jersey, but NewARK is in Delaware.
- You know how to carefully pronounce the name Foulk Road..
- The whole state panics and uses all of their road salt for that inch of snow.
- You love the beach but hate the tourists.
- You know about pumkin - chunkin and, and you have your favorite chunker.
- You know someone who went to school with Randy White or one of the Capanos.
- You've eaten scrapple sandwiches.
- That if it takes more than an hour to drive to, you're not going.
- You know the name of every street in Delaware, but have no idea what the route number is (VERY TRUE!).
- You end your sentences with unnecessary prepositions. ("Where's my coat at?")

- You actually know what a "slippery" dumpling is.
- You install security lights on your house and garage and leave both unlocked.
- You know what YouDee is.
- You carry jumper cables in your car.
- Somebody in your family works for the DuPont Company.
- You only own 3 spices: salt, pepper, and ketchup (for the scrapple).
- BLUE ROCKS, YEA! !!
- You think anyone from anywhere but Delaware has an accent.
- You think the "Apple Scrapple Festival" is perfectly normal, except for all those granola-types running in the 5 K race.
- You think, maybe, just maybe, you might get a White Christmas. Then it rains.
- The highest point in the state is a rise on the golf course.
- The state has one hill. You've been sledding on it.
- You remember WAMS and Willie in the Morning.
- You remember when Christiana Mall had a Galaxy arcade.
- You actually get these jokes and forward them to your friends from Delaware

Arasapha's Wreath Workshop this Wednesday

Dec. 4th from 9:30am to 7pm

New Castle Presbyterian Church on 2nd St. in the Christian Educational Bldg.

We need willing hands to help decorate the nearly 100 wreaths and swags that contribute to the holiday atmosphere and the Spirit of Christmas in New Castle

This year our funding for this project was cut drastically by the City. The Trustees have funded this workshop with Arasapha providing the labor and materials. Donations to help offset the cost of the workshop may be sent to Arasapha Garden Club, PO Box 185, New Castle, DE 19720 or you may contribute at the workshop.

Movie Discussion Night

6pm, at the home of
Suzanne Souder and Glenn Rill
60 W 4th St.

The film to watch before you come is

"It's A Wonderful Life", directed by Frank Capra. Jimmy Stewart stars as George Bailey who is in despair because his life has not gone according to plan -- to the point he wishes he had never been born. Watch the movie ahead of time, then join us for discussion of this holiday classic. Please bring a dish to share and come ready to talk about the social and religious questions raised by the story and the values it highlights.

Sandy Claws Cookies

Instructions

1. Divide the cookie dough into two equal portions. Knead red food coloring into one portion and leave the other one plain.
 2. Working on a flour-dusted sheet of wax paper, roll out the plain dough 1/4 inch thick. Use the round cookie cutter to cut out a bunch of Jack Skellington face shapes.
 3. Now roll out the red dough as you did the plain. Using a kitchen knife, cut out a red triangular hat shape (about 4 inches tall and 2 inches across the base) for each face. Use the cookie cutter to cut a curved notch in the base of each hat, as shown.
 4. Top each of the faces with a hat, draping the curved edge of the triangle over the top edge of the circle. Use your fingertips to gently press down on the overlapped dough layers (just enough to make them stick together). Then carefully fold over the top of the hat, as shown.
 5. Use a spatula to transfer the assembled cookies to a baking sheet, and bake them according to the recipe directions. Allow the baked cookies to cool briefly on the baking sheet before transferring them to a wire rack to cool completely.
 6. Spread white cookie icing on the face portion of each cookie. Then set the cookies aside for a few hours to let the icing harden.
 7. Use the edible marker to draw Jack Skellington facial features on the hardened icing. For the best results, position the mouth close to the lower edge of the cookie and leave a little space above the eyes to trim the hat.
 8. Now give each hat a "fleecy" brim by applying a line of cookie icing along the edge and pressing coconut flakes into the frosting. Lastly, stick a round white candy pompom to the tip of each hat. Once the trim icing hardens, the cookies are ready to serve.
- Note: Homemade sugar cookie recipes tend to work best for these cookies. If you choose one of the ready-made refrigerated doughs, keep in mind that they tend to spread.

The Holidays at the Amstel & Dutch Houses

The Amstel House will be decorated for a traditional holiday celebration in colonial times, showing off a "dessert board" of the period, and featuring traditional 18th century customs during the period of Governor Nicholas Van Dyke's residency. At the Dutch House, experience a celebration of St. Nicholas' Eve, a tribute to the legend of Saint Nicholas, Dutch patron saint.

Included with regular admission to the museums.

This holiday season, visitors will get a glimpse into the holiday customs of the Read House families between the nineteenth and early twentieth century.

In the early 1800's, the Read family Christmas was a time of dinner parties, dance lessons, and parlor games.

The Laird family rooms will focus on acts of charity during the holidays in the early 1920s. Visitors will experience the many ways the Laird family entertained, dressed to impress, and hosted a charity dinner and silent auction.

The taproom tells the story of anticipated New Year's revelry.

The Read House and Gardens, operated by the Delaware Historical Society is located on The Strand in New Castle. The Holiday display is open through Sunday, Dec. 15th. Starting Wed. Dec. 18th through Sun., Dec. 29th offering special Read family focused tours.

The Read House will be closed Christmas.

Cobblestones is growing!

Every Sunday morning, nearly 600
"Cobbles" receive their weekly dose of New Castle's comings and goings and other good and interesting stuff!

Cobblestones is my "fun" project, a service to the community. There is no charge to community organizations for their listings. Keeping the the 'community fun philosophy' Cobblestones is free of political or social issue advertising.

Space for commercial/business ads require a donation of $50 to cover time and materials. That covers four random insertions.

Checks made to me personally.

Ads should be a moderate size. A jpg or PDF works the best. Let me know early in the week an approx. size with a final copy
Thursday. If it's just a listing for "events", please send me copy as soon as possible.

Personally, I would like to thank everyone for your interest and participation in the growing
Cobblestones family.
Anything I can do to help,
please let me know.
