A few week's ago I was anticipating the three hundredth member of the Cobblestone family, fondly referred to as Cobbles. Once I started the tally, I discovered we were well over that mark. Now approaching 360, the next plateau will be 500.

All this began as a way to keep some friends (a dozen or so) informed as to what events, meetings and entertainment were revolving around our world. Oh, and some light gossip too!

Cobblestones has grown to provide all that and more to an audience not just confined to New Castle but across the USA! All of this wouldn't be possible without the assistance of Kat Zane, who proofs each edition; as well as many friends and neighbors who contribute stories, ideas and gather new readers. My son Jay has skillfully managed the website these many weeks.

I am truly grateful to everyone and look forward to the next 52 issues.

the shamrock is a three-leafed old white clover.

It is known as a symbol of Ireland. The name shamrock is derived from Irish seamróg, which is the diminutive version of the Irish word for clover (seamair).

It is sometimes of the variety Trifolium repens (white clover, Irish: seamair bhán) but today usually Trifolium dubium (lesser clover, Irish: seamair bhuí). However, other three-leafed plants — such as Medicago lupulina, Trifolium pratense, and Oxalis — are sometimes designated as shamrocks. The shamrock was traditionally used for its medical properties and was a popular motif in Victorian times.

Fresh vegetables for you and your family in 2012 at affordable prices. Sign up TODAY to become a cooperative member, enjoy fresh vegetables all year (well, almost!) For a $100 membership each year you will be able to pick your own vegetables at the Penn Farm for half price. Price will be determined by taking the average at three local stores for each vegetable available in any week. So, if tomatoes are selling for $2 a pound locally, at Penn Farm you can pick your own tomatoes for $1.00 a pound.

THAT'S A GREAT DEAL!

'Welcoming In' Day at Historic Penn Farm - March 24th ~ 1 - 4 PM.

Cobblestones is growing!

Every Sunday morning, 350 plus "Cobbles" receive their weekly dose of New Castle's comings and goings and other good and interesting stuff! This is my retirement "fun" project, a pay back to the community. There is no charge to community organizations for their listings.

Space for commercial/business ads will require a donation of $50 to cover time and materials. The rate that covers four random insertions.

Ads should be a moderate size. A jpg or PDF works the best. Let me know early in the week an approx. size with a final copy Thursday. If it's just a listing for "events", please send me copy as soon as possible.

Personally, I would like to thank everyone for your interest and participation in the growing Cobblestones family. Anything I can do to help, please let me know.

2nd Annual Jig Doll Competition

Lillie Carlson 2011 Winner

Thurs., March 15th • 6pm Celebrate St. Patrick's Day, at Trader's Cove Coffee Shop, 206 Del. St., New Castle. Six organizations in town will be competing against one another to see which group can produce the most inspiring, striking, remarkable or exciting Jig Doll! One limitation—they have to complete it in an hour! Supplied only with pencils and Magic Markers, the competitors will 'decorate' their own doll for the competition, ornamenting it in any way they want. Then, to the applause of their supporters and the music of Irish Jigs, comes the grand finale — they have to make the dolls actually dance!

Organizations competing: Senior Center, Eileen Blyskal • Arasapha, Kathy Tidball • The Court House, Brian Cannon • City Council, Teel Petty •

Good Will Fire Co., Ken Sturgis • New Castle Police, Adam Brams. Trader's Cove will have their standard menu available for eating and drinking, including Guinness, wines, beers and soft drinks. Official time start for the actual Jig Doll Judging begins at 7 pm. Come and cheer on our own favorite organization plus have a fun evening.

bloodymary Burgers

the innards

- 4 tbsps extra-virgin olive oil (EVOO), divided
- 1 small onion, finely chopped
- 2 ribs of celery, finely chopped
- 1 tsp celery salt
- 1 tbsp hot sauce
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 1 cup tomato sauce
- 2 pounds ground beef sirloin
- 2 tbsps Worcestershire sauce
- 1/4 cup flat-leaf parsley leaves, chopped
- 2 tbsps prepared horseradish
- 2 palmfuls grill seasoning
- 4 Kaiser rolls, split and toasted
- 1/4 head of iceberg lettuce, shredded
- Spicy gourmet potato chips such as black pepper chips

how to make them

Preheat broiler to high. Preheat a large skillet over medium-high heat with 2 turns of the pan EVOO, about 2 tbsps.

Place a small sauce pot over medium-high heat with 2 turns of the pan EVOO, about 2 tbsps. Once the oil ripples, add the onion and celery, season with some celery salt, hot sauce and a little pepper, and cook stirring frequently for 4-5 minutes or until the veggies are tender. Add the tomato sauce, bring up to a bubble then turn down the heat to medium-low and let it simmer while you cook the burgers.

In a mixing bowl, combine the ground sirloin, Worcestershire sauce, parsley, horseradish and grill seasoning. Mix until thoroughly combined then score the meat with the side of your hand into 4 equal portions. Form each portion into to one-inch-thick patties. Once the skillet is hot, add the Bloody Mary burgers and cook on each side for 6-7 minutes, until they reach desired doneness. While the burgers are working, toast the buns in the broiler.

Remove the burgers from the skillet to the bottoms of the toasted buns, top with the warm ketchup, shredded lettuce and a toasted bun top. Serve with chips alongside.

While this carnivorous mainstay of the American diet was featured on a popular TV show; it was rumored the host had deployed her spies to Mr. Young's kitchen in Bear, Delaware for this feature.

taste [tāst]

It's that sense we all favor with flavor. Some we love and some we yuck! Last week's visit to "the Pit" was truly a walk down memory lane. Visually, it hasn't changed at all. The Pit Special Deluxe was as my memory perceived. The fries, crisp and golden. The milkshake, 'chocolate on chocolate' thick, rich and oh so yummy! When was the last time you were served an ice tea spoon with your shake? Back to the burger. There is something about a Charcoal Pit grilled taste that cannot be duplicated. Imitation is the best form of flattery, so keep trying.

If the PIT was your favorite place growing up (in Wilmington), or you've just discovered Delaware; give your memory a treat and turn into the Pit and re-new a tradition. - Teditor

PS - The Pit is on Concord Pike, US 202. You belong to a special fraternity if you also went to Mitchell's in Fairfax for your trains, boy & girl scouting uniforms and supplies. Oh and those last minute Christmas gifts.

THOUGHTS BETWEEN SETS

A FULL HOUSE OF FUN

A Bit O'Twin Span History

In April 1945 the Delaware State Highway Department was authorized to construct and operate a crossing of the Delaware River between New Castle, Delaware and Pennsville, New Jersey. It took $44 million to build the graceful 440 foot-high span, which opened to traffic on August 15, 1951.

By 1955, nearly 8 million vehicles were crossing the bridge each year - almost double the original project on. As a result, talks about building a second bridge were soon underway, and a twin span was dedicated in 1968. Although the spans look identical, there are differences. Today, more than 90,000 vehicles cross the twin spans daily on their combined total of 8 lanes.
