Flag Day June 14th

I am the flag of the United States of America.

I fly atop the world's tallest buildings. I stand watch in America's halls of justice. I stand side by side with the Maple Leaf on the worlds longest undefended border. I fly majestically over institutions of learning. I stand guard with power in the world. Look up and see me. I stand for peace, honor, truth and justice. I stand for freedom. I am confident. I am arrogant. I am proud. When I am flown with my fellow banners, my head is a little higher, my colors a little truer. I bow to no one!

I am recognized all over the world. I am honored - I am saluted. I am loved -

I am revered. I am respected -- and I am feared. I have fought in every battle of every war for more then 200 years. I was flown at Valley Forge, Gettysburg, Shiloh and Appomattox. I was there at San Juan Hill, the trenches of France, in the Argonne Forest, Anzio, Rome and the beaches of Normandy, Guam, Okinawa, Korea and KheSan, Saigon Vietnam. Know me, I was there.

I led my troops, I was dirty, battle worn and tired, but my soldiers cheered me, And I was proud. I have been burned, torn and trampled on the streets of countries I have helped set free. It does not hurt, for I am invincible. I have been soiled upon, burned, torn and trampled on the streets of my country. And when it's by those whom I've served in battle -- it hurts. But I shall overcome -- for I am strong. I have slipped the bonds of Earth and stood watch over the uncharted frontiers of space from my vantage point on the moon. I have borne silent witness to all of America's finest hours. But my finest hours are yet to come. When I am torn into strips and used as bandages for my wounded comrades on the battlefield, When I am flown at half-mast to honor my soldiers, Or when I lie in the trembling arms of a grieving parent at the grave of their fallen son or daughter, I am proud.

Heirloom of the Week

Forellenschluss Romaine Lettuce

A gorgeous romaine that has a delicate taste and texture of a butterhead, distinguished for its deep green leaves flecked with wine-red splotches.

Forellenschluss, whose name translates to speckled like a trout and is alternately called trout back lettuce, is an extremely handsome Austrian heirloom (from the late 18th century) of the red-spotted type. It features bright medium green leaves dappled with lively burgundy splotches, looking for all the world like each head has been spattered with a good red wine.

More upright and cup-shaped than Speckled Amish, with larger and darker splotches and better heat tolerance.

Gratin de Macaroni

As served at Chicago's Bistro Campagne

This is macaroni as you've never seen it before! Rich, creamy, and with Gruyere and other delicious cheeses, this dish is nothing to sniff at. It is incredibly simple to prepare, and it gives you an end creation that is truly scrumptious. You won't even know you're not eating in a genuine French Bistro!

Steal This Recipe®

Instructions:

Start by finely grating all of the cheeses except the Parmigiano-Reggiano. Use a large sauté pan to reduce the cream by half, then add the cheeses, nutmeg, salt, pepper and pasta. Stir continuously until all of the cheeses are melted. Remove from the heat, and then stir in the egg yolk. Pour the mixture into a gratin dish or small ovenproof bowl. A soufflé cup will work if you do not have a gratin dish. Sprinkle with the Parmigiano-Reggiano. Brown under the broiler, and serve bubbling hot! This recipe makes 1 restaurant serving.

Ingredients:

1/2 cup heavy cream	1 pinch grated nutmeg
1 cup cooked macaroni	to taste sea salt
1/4 cup Emmenthal cheese	to taste cracked white pepper
1/4 cup Gruyere cheese	1/4 cup Parmigiano-Reggiano
1/4 cup skim mozzarella	1 teaspoon egg yolk
