VJ DAY
or Victory Day,

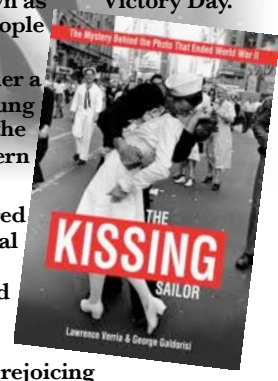

commemorates the anniversary of Japan's surrender to the Allies in 1945, ending World War II. The atomic bombs dropped on Hiroshima on August 6 and Nagasaki on August 9, and the Soviet Union's invasion of Manchuria in the previous week made the surrender inevitable. President Harry S Truman's announcement of the surrender set off street celebrations from coast to coast in the United States. The official end of the war did not occur until September 2, 1945, when General Douglas MacArthur accepted the Japanese surrender from General Yoshijiro Umezu aboard the USS Missouri in Tokyo Bay.

There have been many arguments and debates concerning the nature and name of this holiday. Veteran groups and their supporters observe Victory Day on the second Monday of August each year. Events may include a commemorative ceremony for veterans. Many people believe that there is a need for such a day to remember the sacrifices that veterans made during World War II, including those who were taken as prisoners of war, were tortured, injured or killed.

However critics claim that the day itself is discriminatory due to its reference to Japan in light of modern times. There have been many attempts to change the holiday's name but so far it remains to be known as Victory Day.

Nonetheless there are people who hope to one day celebrate the holiday under a new name or educate young Americans more about the Japanese culture in modern society.

President Truman declared September 2 as the official VJ Day in 1945. In the newspapers across world that day, there were hundreds of photos of soldiers and civilians rejoicing together. VJ Day is a legal state holiday only in the state of Rhode Island. Rhode Island has Professionals in Olympic competition questioned.

"Before professional athletes were allowed to participate openly in the Games, America used to relish being the underdog. U.S. collegians took on the quasi-professional communist bloc teams and pulled off the occasional against-all-odds upset, none bigger than 1980's "Miracle on Ice" victory in lake Placid against the mighty Soviet hockey team.

Today, the U.S. Dream Teams are like that Soviet squad. If they win, it's expected. Ho hum. And if they lose, it's a huge blow to national pride."

Free OPEN FARM day

Sat., Aug. 18th • 10am to 1pm

Pack up the family for a Saturday romp to Historic Penn Farm and see what's 'growin' on in the fields. Farm-fresh produce will be for sale.

- * See the 19th century granary, dairy barns, and John Crow homestead—a fascinating part of our local and national history.
- * Talk to the farmers and farm managers about the crops, the land, and current/upcoming activities and events
- * Observe the growth of crops and further cultivation of the fields
- * Hike along the pathways of the fields or sit along the knoll and sky gaze.
- * Learn about new area trails from Delaware Greenways

This self-guided, outdoor event and will be held rain or shine from 10AM to 1PM. Say you saw it in the Cobblestones

Fried GREEN Tomatoes

ingredients

- * Oil
- * 4 green tomatoes, cut into 1/4-inch rings
- * Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- * 3/4 cup all-purpose flour
- * 1 tablespoon garlic powder
- * 4 eggs
- * 2 tablespoons milk
- * 1 1/2 cups panko bread crumbs
- * Pinch cayenne pepper
- * Pinch paprika

directions

In a deep-fryer, * preheat oil to 350° F. Season tomatoes, on both sides, with salt and pepper. Place flour and garlic powder in a shallow dish. In another shallow dish, beat eggs with the milk. In another dish, mix bread crumbs with cayenne and paprika. Dredge tomatoes through the flour, then the eggs, and then through the bread crumbs. Add only a few pieces to the fryer at a time, so they can cook evenly, about 2 to 3 minutes. Drain on paper towels.

*You would be better off with your cast iron fry pan! And, Nana did't use bread crumbs. But if you must, she'll understand. The Neely's video

Peach Crisp

with Maple Cream Sauce

ingredients

- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 1/2 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 1/2 tsp ground cinnamon
- 1/2 tsp ground nutmeg
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 1 stick unsalted butter
- 5 to 6 whole fresh peaches (best when not overly ripe or soft), peeled, cut in half and pit removed (about 1 3/4 pounds)
- 1/2 a lemon
- 7 tablespoons real maple syrup
- 1 1/2 cups heavy cream
- 3 tablespoons light corn syrup

directions

Preheat the oven to 350° F.

In a medium bowl, mix the flour, brown sugar, granulated sugar, cinnamon, nutmeg and salt using a fork or pastry cutter. Cut the butter into small pieces and gradually add to flour mixture until evenly mixed.

Slice the peaches 1/2-inch thick into a bowl. Add the zest from the lemon half. Squeeze juice from the lemon half and stir in with the peaches and zest. Add 2 tablespoons of the maple syrup to the peaches and stir well.

Pour the peach mixture into a small pan (8 or 9-inch square) and cover evenly with the crumb topping. Cover with foil and bake for 15 minutes. Remove the foil and bake until crisp and brown on top, an additional 20 to 30 minutes.

For the maple cream sauce, pour the heavy cream into a saucepan. Add the remaining 5 tablespoons maple syrup and corn syrup and stir over moderate heat until thickened and reduced by about one-third, about 15 minutes. Refrigerate the sauce until it is cold and thick. Or, if you're in a hurry, set the saucepan into a small bowl of ice (the ice will melt and turn into ice water). Stirring your mixture, it will cool and thicken in about 15 minutes. Drizzle the maple cream sauce over the peach crisp. Serve warm.

PERFECT LEMONADE

Directions

Remove wide strips of zest from 2 lemons with a vegetable peeler (do not remove the pith). Make 2 cups simple syrup (recipe below), adding the lemon zest before heating. Let cool, then pour into an ice-filled pitcher.

Stir in 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 cups each fresh lemon juice and water, and some lemon slices.

Simple Syrup: To make 2 cups simple syrup, bring 1 1/2 cups each sugar and water to a boil, stirring until dissolved.

Chill Out!
