“Free Black Communities of the 19th Century”

Mon., August 26th at 6:30 pm at the Delaware City Public Library, located at 250 Fifth St., in Delaware City, Del

A dual lecture sponsored by the Underground Railroad Coalition of Delaware. Conducted by cultural-heritage consultant Janet L. Sheridan who will discuss Marshalltown which was established circa 1830 in Salem County, N.J., and Dr. Rebecca Sheppard, associate director of the Center for Historic Architecture and Design at the University of Delaware, who will discuss Polktown, a cultural community within, and adjacent to, Delaware City, Del. which was studied as part of a 2008-2010 grant from the National Park Service's Underground Railroad Network to Freedom.

Admission is free and open to the public. For additional information about the program, call Debra Martin of the coalition at 302-576-3107. Call 302-834-4148 to contact the Delaware City Public Library.

Former one-room schoolhouse, constructed circa 1880, in Marshalltown, Mannington Township, Salem County, N.J. Historically a school for black children, it may have

“We are a National Park”

Russ Smith told the many attending the first Community Update meeting being held in the Court House last Wednesday evening.

Smith, Superintendent of the First State National Monument explained that the designation of being a National Monument, (there is NO granite monolith) does not mean that “we are a junior or scaled down part of the National Park Service”.

The monument designation came as a bit of a surprise last March in a two day blitz to announce that the President had signed the bill that capped decades of (Representative, Governor) and today Senator Tom Carper and Smith's quest for Delaware's inclusion into the NPS.

Smith made it clear that citizen involvement will chart the direction and operation of the Park. Residents would have input on how the Park would cohesively integrate with residents. Working with the local and State Historical organizations was assured.

Smith hopes that a portion of the Sheriffs House would be open in the near future that would serve as a NPS headquarters. He hopes to leave his shared office with Mayor Reese for a new office in the West Wing of the Court House by early September.

BACON

GOTTA GET

- ◆ 1 can (8ct.) Grands Flaky Layers Biscuits
- ◆ Cubed Mozzarella Cheese (1-1" cube per Bomb)
- ◆ 2 lbs. of Bacon (1 slice per Bomb)

◆ Sticks and oil for frying

DIRECTIONS

Cube up the Cheese, and cut each Biscuit into fourths. Place one piece of Cheese inside a Biscuit quarter, and roll it up in there, nice and tight...

Wrap each rolled Bomb in a slice of Bacon, and secure it with a skewer or toothpick...

In a med/large pot, heat up approx. 2" of Oil to 350° and fry them up in small batches. Maybe one or two at a time, the oil will expand so stay close...

Drain them on some paper towel, but serve them up good and warm. YUM!!

CITY SEARCH CONTINUES...

On Friday, August 9th, the City accepted the resignation of its recently appointed City Administrator, Ronald Morris. After one week in the position, Mr. Morris came to the realization that the job requirements demanded more than he was able to offer at this point in his career.

The City stated "we are grateful that he came to this personal conclusion sooner rather than later".

The City will continue its search for a City Administrator.

drinking Cucumbers The Fizz

- ◆ 2 oz Cucumber, peeled and roughly chopped
- ◆ 1.5 oz Grey Goose La Poire Flavored Vodka
- ◆ .5 oz St-Germain
- ◆ .5 oz Lemon juice
- ◆ .5 oz Simple syrup (one part sugar, one part water)
- ◆ Lemonade or club soda

Cucumber Tini mixings

- ◆ 1/4 oz. Dry Vermouth
- ◆ 2 1/2 oz. Crop Cucumber Vodka
- ◆ 1/2 oz. Ginger-Lime Syrup (recipe follows)
- ◆ 2 Mint Leaves
- ◆ Garnish with 2 Cucumber Slices

making

In a shaker, muddle the cucumber. Add the vodka, St-Germain, lemon juice and simple syrup, and fill with ice. Shake vigorously and strain into a highball glass filled with fresh ice. Garnish with mint, cucumber slices and lemon zest and top with lemonade or club soda.

Rinse a chilled martini glass with 1/4 oz. Dry Vermouth, then discard the excess.
In a mixing glass, combine the Crop Cucumber Vodka, Ginger-Lime Syrup, and Mint Leaves. Add ice, top with a shaker, and shake well.

The RSVP sponsored CareWear Program needs your help.

RSVP is part of the State Office of Volunteerism and facilitates the work of CareWear members.

CareWear is composed of over 100 RSVP volunteers who knit and crochet year round making hats, mittens, scarves, lap robes, sweaters, blankets, and slippers for all age groups. These lovingly crafted items are distributed each year at the end of October to social service agencies in New Castle County that support our community's most vulnerable populations. Over the past several years, CareWear volunteers have made over 25,000 items which were donated to many agencies including Ministry of Caring Child Care, Mom's House, Wilmington Head Start, Sunday Breakfast Mission, Shoes That Fit, Friendship House, Aids Delaware, Emmanuel Dining Room, and the Salvation Army, among others. Chemo caps and lap robes are donated throughout the year to the Helen F. Graham Cancer Center.

CareWear is looking for full skeins of washable yarn to help with this wonderful outreach program. Volunteers have been busy making hand crafted items for the 2013 distribution which will take place on October 25 to coincide with Make a Difference Day. Donations can be made by contacting Susan Fox, RSVP Volunteer Coordinator, at 255-9690. Tax receipts are available from the RSVP Advisory Council.

Cobblestones

is growing!

Every Sunday morning, 550 plus "Cobbles" receive their weekly dose of New Castle's comings and goings and other good and interesting stuff!

Cobblestones is my "fun" project, a service to the community. There is no charge to community organizations for their listings. Keeping the the 'community fun philosophy' Cobblestones is free of political or social issue advertising.

Space for commercial/business ads requires a donation of $50 to cover time and materials.

That covers four random insertions.
Checks made to me personally.

Ads should be a moderate size. A jpg or PDF works the best. Let me know early in the week an approx. size with a final copy Thursday. If it's just a listing for "events", please send me copy as soon as possible.

Personally, I would like to thank everyone for your interest and participation in the growing Cobblestones family. Anything I can do to help, please let me know.

Here's GreenThumbTom celebrating his recent 75th B'Day with delicious mussels and a big selection of Belgian beers. He's been visiting Belgium and Alexander their first Grandchild who was born there and lives there. He is officially a Brussels Sprout! However this picture is in Philly...a stones throw from the Art Museum.
